

ANATOMY OF STYLE

SOPHIE GACHET

Flammarion

HER KILLER DETAIL

A bob cut always ensures that you look elegant, even in jeans and a T-shirt.

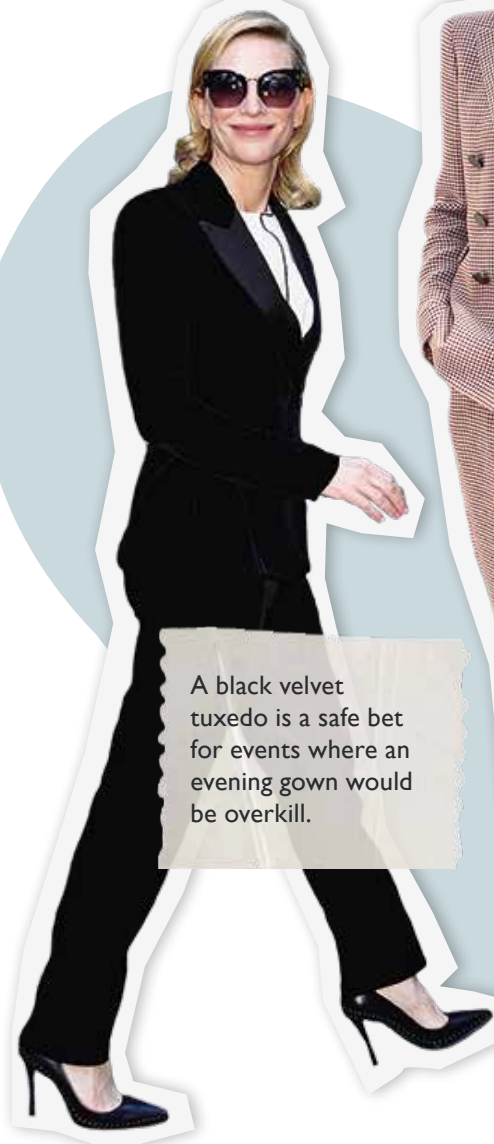

HER 3 ICONIC LOOKS

A suit in an unexpected fabric: whether flecked, plaid, or even polka dot, patterns don't scare Cate.

A black velvet tuxedo is a safe bet for events where an evening gown would be overkill.

Black pants with a colorful shirt. Black loses its dramatic edge when paired with yellow. Perfect!

“Style evolves, it adapts to our lifestyle. I like unique people.”

Cate Blanchett

STEAL THIS IDEA

“Don't be afraid to break the rules,” says Cate. She pairs a pink skirt suit with white sneakers—but no laces. The goal is to stay classy, after all.

HAILEY'S style secret

SHE GOES FOR EXTRA WIDE-LEG PANTS

But always with a little twist: whether gold, camouflage, military, or plaid, they define the look. And they certainly don't go unnoticed.

- According to Hailey, every wardrobe must include these five cult pieces: combat boots, a leather jacket, an extra-large cashmere sweater, a pair of skinny jeans, and a well-cut T-shirt. So it's easy to copy her style using items you already have at home. Her daytime looks always include an oversize element. In the evening, she goes into bombshell mode, in dresses that accentuate her curves.

HER FAVORITE DESIGNERS

Alexandre Vauthier, Atelier Versace, Zuhair Murad, Ulyana Sergeenko, Tom Ford: the designers she chooses for her red-carpet dresses are all masters of the seductive look. For everyday wear, she turns to Yves Saint Laurent, Bottega Veneta, and Balenciaga, as well as smaller labels like Brandy Melville or sportswear icons like Nike and Vans.

YARA SHAHIDI

MATCHING ENSEMBLES

This actress isn't interested in shaking things up: she's an expert in designer-led looks. She sticks to a theme with pants and a matching jacket or shirt. She's chic no matter what the color or print. It pays to stick to your principles.

KAIA GERBER

BLACK SNEAKERS WITH WHITE LACES

The young supermodel has worn Converse sneakers from her very earliest appearances. Time marches on, but these cool shoes remain a staple in her wardrobe. She's just as likely to wear them with a floral print skirt as she is with jeans or sweatpants. Simple.z Basic.

HER KILLER DETAIL

The baseball cap: she wears it with skirts and jeans. Her signature move? Turning it backwards.

HER 3 ICONIC LOOKS

How do you make a suit attractive? Kristen has figured it out: it's all about the color.

“To have style, it’s really important to like what you’re wearing.”

Kristen Stewart

STEAL THIS IDEA

Cuffed jeans and a striped shirt under a well-cut jacket—but with very sporty sneakers and socks. She likes mixing styles.

Shorts with a tailored jacket and flat lace-up boots: so Kristen—and so Chanel!

Sequined pants, an open shirt, and a satin collared jacket—that’s a Stewart-style tuxedo.
