The Unqualified Hostess
I DO IT MY WAY AND YOU CAN TOO!
WHOOPi GOLDBERG

The legendary actor and comedian shows how to set a great table, shares ideas for unforgettable celebrations, and says, “It’s about fun, not perfection!” In her own words...

“It’s Whoopi here and I’ve written this book that, frankly, is the last book anyone would expect. You would never think of me as someone with the courage to say, ‘You have everything you need to be fantastic in your own house, apartment, or trailer to set a great table.’

Let’s face it, you look at a lot of books on Entertaining and think ‘I could never do this in my house, I don’t have this stuff and it’s not going to look like what I’m seeing.’ That’s not what’s going to happen here!

I want to show you there is great heart in setting the table. For two or four or the kids or Halloween or tea just for you. For dinners with friends or the holidays. I’m going to tell you stories about what I do when people come over and give you ideas about what you’re seeing because Honey, everything in this book is what you can do in your house. You got a 7/11 near you? They sell flowers. Take those bad boys and put them on your table. You got some crazy old plate from your grandmother (or a fancy silver one)? You got little kids’ toys that have been annoying you forever, put them on the table too. Who’s going to tell you it’s wrong? Not me! I’m going to tell you it’s right and I’m going to take you on a journey. And don’t forget the bathroom; decorate it too, people are going to see it. It’s all at your house. Come with me, I’ll show you!

P.S. I know the glass on the cover is broken. Accidents happen!”

Whoopi Goldberg is one of only fifteen winners of the EGOT, with three Emmys, a Grammy, an Oscar, and a Tony, as well as two Golden Globes, NAACP Image Awards, and many other honors for her work as an actor, producer, host, comedian, and humanitarian activist. She is a host of The View.

The International Best-Dressed List
THE OFFICIAL GUIDE

AMY FINE COLLINS
INTRODUCTION BY GRAYDON CARTER
FOREWORD BY CAROLINA HERRERA

A lavishly illustrated banquet of style, elegance, and taste, this is a who’s who of the most glamorous men and women around the world, the ultimate treasury of fashion inspiration.

This sumptuous volume—the ultimate sourcebook for fashion mavens, Instagram followers, and celebrity worshippers—presents the complete history of the much-lauded and highly visible International Best-Dressed List (IBDL) launched by Eleanor Lambert, “Godmother of Fashion,” in 1940. The List has become a barometer of style and the highest honor a sartorial savant can receive, and today it’s an ongoing record of the world’s most glamorous women and men from society, royalty, Hollywood, celebrity, fashion, art, culture, sports, and media. These gorgeous “swans” of elegance, influence, and grace are gathered here in the most comprehensive survey ever published.

This rich story is told by insider and IBDL Hall-of-Famer Amy Fine Collins through her encyclopedic knowledge, exclusive insights, and countless entertaining anecdotes about the behind-the-scenes goings-on—Lambert was offered kickbacks and bribes of up to $50,000 by list aspirants—that shed light on the selection process, the vibrant personalities (not to mention egos) of the chosen, and the zeitgeist of the times.

For sixty years, Lambert was queen of the International Best-Dressed List. In 2002, she formally ceded the reins to Graydon Carter, Amy Fine Collins, Reinaldo Herrera, and Aimée Bell.

Amy Fine Collins is a writer and has been a special correspondent at Vanity Fair for more than 20 years. Graydon Carter was Vanity Fair’s editor in chief from 1992 to 2017. His next venture is Air Mail, a digital news platform, to be released summer 2019. Fashion designer Carolina Herrera was inducted into the IBDL’s Hall of Fame in 1980.

DAVID YARROW

FOREWORD BY TOM BRADY

The must-have photography monograph of the year, this lavish oversized volume celebrates David Yarrow’s unparalleled wildlife imagery.

For more than two decades, legendary British photographer David Yarrow has been putting himself in harm’s way to capture immersive and evocative photography of the world’s most revered and endangered species. With his images heightening awareness of those species and also raising huge sums for charity and conservation, he is one of the most relevant photographers in the world today.

Featuring Yarrow’s 150 most iconic photographs, this book offers a truly unmatched view of some of the world’s most compelling animals. The collection of stunning images, paired with Yarrow’s first-person contextual narrative, offers insight into a man who will not accept second best in his relentless pursuit of excellence.

David Yarrow Photography offers a balanced retrospective of his spectacular work in the wild and his staged storytelling work, which has earned him wide acclaim in the fine-art market. Yarrow rarely just takes pictures—he almost always makes them. This approach sets him apart from others in the field.

Yarrow’s work will awaken our collective conscience, and—true to form—he plans to donate all the royalties from this book to conservation.

David Yarrow’s unique portrayal of the natural world has earned him a global following, with exhibitions at some of the world’s foremost museums and galleries. Tom Brady is considered the greatest NFL quarterback of all time, and is the only player in NFL history to win six Super Bowls. Away from the field, Brady supports his wife, Gisele Bündchen, in her work as a Goodwill Ambassador for the United Nations Environment Program.
A Great Party
DESIGNING THE PERFECT CELEBRATION

BRYAN RAFANELLI
FOREWORD BY CHELSEA CLINTON

In his debut book, acclaimed event designer Bryan Rafanelli shares his secrets for creating unforgettable parties.

Voted one of the top wedding designers in the world by Vogue, Bryan Rafanelli has designed and produced some of the nation’s most exclusive and high-profile events, including many for President Obama at the White House as well as Chelsea Clinton’s wedding. In his first book, Rafanelli shares his philosophy for creating artful celebrations that convey beauty and elegance while telling a story unique to its hosts. From a seaside destination wedding to a stylish masquerade fete, Rafanelli’s work is marked by stunning statements and clever everyday details.

The book opens with key Rafanelli principles to hosting great celebrations, from considering a room’s surfaces—the floor, walls, and ceiling—to how adding guests will change what you see. He shares his thoughts on the importance of enhancing what's already part of a space rather than obscuring it, as when he enclosed the gilded mirrors of the East Room in the White House in twelve-foot frames of fresh flowers for a state dinner under President Obama. Part two of the book explores dozens of events in greater detail. Rafanelli takes readers behind the scenes in sections such as Weddings, showcasing both the main event and the welcome and after parties; Charity Events, highlighting what makes one unique and successful; and the White House, featuring state dinners and holiday decor.

Bryan Rafanelli launched Rafanelli Events in 1996 as a three-person operation, executing only a handful of events a year. It has quickly evolved into a full-service event design, strategy, planning, and production company with more than 100 events annually in venues around the world. Rafanelli Events has offices in New York City, Boston, and Palm Beach. Chelsea Clinton is the vice chair of the Clinton Foundation and the author of several best-selling books.

On Style
INSPIRATION AND ADVICE FROM THE NEW GENERATION OF INTERIOR DESIGN
CARL DELLATORE

On Style brings together today’s top up-and-coming interior designers who together reflect the future of decorating, illustrated with never-before-published photos of each designer’s work.

The world is changing, and interior design is changing along with it. Today’s designers are presenting a fresh take on decorating, and they are connecting directly with their audience over social media. In his follow-up to Interior Design Master Class, editor Carl Dellatore turns his curatorial eye toward this next generation of decorators, culling fifty of the top designers working in America today. On Style provides an intimate view into the personalities, inspirations, and aesthetics of these members of the new guard. Each profile spotlights a never-before-seen project, as well as each designer’s story and influences, and of course, their advice for achieving great style. The group hails from across the country, from Seattle to Los Angeles, Houston to New York. It includes best-selling authors like Paloma Contreras; Elle Decor’s 2018 A-Listers like Nick Olsen, Charlie Ferrer, and Bennett Leifer; members of distinguished firms like Cullman & Kravis and McMillen Inc.; and protégés of famous decorators such as Bunny Williams, Jamie Drake, and Miles Redd. This fascinating cross section of talent results in a book that readers will want to return to again and again for ideas and inspiration.

A textile designer, Carl Dellatore has worked extensively in magazines, producing editorial content for House & Garden, Martha Stewart Living, and House Beautiful. He is the author of The Fabric Style Book, Interior Design Master Class, and the forthcoming Garden Design Master Class.

Praise for Interior Design Master Class:
“This tome has the makings of a modern-day classic.”

Rick Owens Fashion

RICK OWENS
PHOTOGRAPHY BY DANIELLE LEVITT

The definitive monograph on the fashion of Rick Owens—one of the most daring and influential designers working today—this book documents over a decade of sublime, iconic styles.

Since the establishment of his label in 1994, Rick Owens has transformed global fashion with his provocative clothing and subversive style. Distinguished by his grunge-meets-glamour aesthetic and defiant anti-fashion stance, Owens created a dark fashion empire that has accrued a devoted international following which gravitates toward the brand’s sublime tailoring, somber palette, mystical layers, and gritty elegance.

Filled with photographs of Owens’s most impressive looks from the last decade, this volume is conceived as a celebration of the Rick Owens aesthetic, approximating with printing effects some of the mystery and detailing associated with the brand. Iconic imagery taken from Owens’s seminal lookbooks provides a unique look at the output of design from an artist who is at once comfortable with developing technologies and respectful of traditional approaches.

With principal photography by Danielle Levitt—who achieved considerable acclaim for her social-realist images—this book is essential for lovers of avant-garde fashion, photography, and design.

Rick Owens is an American fashion designer and winner of a Cooper-Hewitt National Design Award. Danielle Levitt is an American photographer based in New York.

English Gardens
FROM THE ARCHIVES OF COUNTRY LIFE MAGAZINE
KATHRYN BRADLEY-HOLE
FOREWORD BY THE DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE

This is the definitive and most authoritative book ever published on the glories of English gardening—historically and horticulturally, a tour de force.

An unprecedented in-depth look at the English garden by one of Britain’s foremost garden writers and authorities, this book showcases the enduring appeal of the English garden whose verdant lawns and borders of colorful plants are the inspiration for garden lovers worldwide. Kathryn Bradley-Hole—the longtime garden columnist for Country Life—takes a fresh look at more than seventy gardens from across England and distills the essence of what makes the English garden style so sought after.

Seasonal photographs capture the gardens—some grand, some personal, some celebrated, some rarely photographed—at their finest moments, accompanied by sparkling, insightful text. Featuring photographs from the unparalleled archives of Country Life, the full story of the English garden is here, from medieval monastery gardens to the Victorians and the Arts and Crafts movement to the twenty-first century. Designs by many of the horticultural world’s greats are amply featured, including Gertrude Jekyll, Capability Brown, Piet Oudolf, and Arne Maynard, as well as gardens famous the world over—Sissinghurst, Hidcote, and Great Dixter—alongside new and less-well-known ones, many open to the public.

Kathryn Bradley-Hole is the author of five books, including the best-selling BBC Garden Lovers’ Guide to Britain and Lost Gardens of England: From the Archives of Country Life. A fellow of the Linnean Society, she was until 2018 the author of Country Life’s weekly nature notes. A RETROSPECTIVE

SASHA NICHOLAS
INTERVIEW BY STEVEN A. NASH WITH WAYNE THIEBAUD. TEXTS BY TONY BERLANT, KATHAN BROWN, GRETCHEN DIEBENKORN GRANT, AND WILLIAM LUERS

The quintessential book on the beloved California artist reveals new scholarly research and firsthand reflections by fellow artists and friends and relatives.

A fresh and new overview of this treasured West Coast artist, with hundreds of his paintings, drawings, and prints covering five decades of his illustrious career. The book surveys the extraordinary achievements of Diebenkorn, who successfully explored both abstract and figurative painting. Produced in a slipcase box, this is the ultimate source for art enthusiasts, from his early work of the mid-1940s to his Berkeley and Ocean Park series. The book includes not only his iconic paintings of the California landscape and interior figures but also many of his less-well-known and rarely published works.

Art historian Sasha Nicholas discusses Diebenkorn’s place in postwar American painting and his independence from the art-world trends. Steven Nash conducts an interview with close friend Wayne Thiebaud, giving an artist’s point of view. The two artists shared the inspiration of California and experimented with perspective to capture their surroundings.

Sasha Nicholas is an independent curator and art historian specializing in American art. Steven A. Nash is president of the board of directors of the Richard Diebenkorn Foundation. Wayne Thiebaud is a painter best known for his still lifes and landscapes who made his career on the West Coast. Tony Berlant is an artist living in Southern California. Kathan Brown is founder of the Crown Point Press in San Francisco. Gretchen Diebenkorn Grant is the daughter of Richard Diebenkorn and lives in the Bay Area. William Luers is a retired American career diplomat and museum executive.

Holiday
THE BEST TRAVEL MAGAZINE THAT EVER WAS
PAMELA FIORI
AFTERWORD BY FRANCK DURAND

The first book on magazine sensation Holiday, which between 1946 and 1977 was one of the most exciting publications in the world. Renowned for its bold layouts, literary credibility, and ambitious choice of photographers and artists, Holiday portrayed the romance of travel like no other periodical.

At Holiday magazine’s peak, urbane editor Ted Patrick and visionary art director Frank Zachary invited postwar America to see and read about the world. On the journey, readers joined the magazine’s renowned roster of talent. Some of the most celebrated writing by Jack Kerouac, Ernest Hemingway, Graham Greene, Joan Didion, Truman Capote, Colette, and E. B. White (his piece “Here Is New York” was commissioned for Holiday in 1949) first appeared in its pages. Henri Cartier-Bresson documented a breathtaking Paris and other cities; Slim Aarons captured the glamour of travel around the world; and Al Hirschfeld and Ludwig Bemelmans contributed showstopping illustrations of places and personages.

Pamela Fiori writes about the magazine’s history, giving it context during the era of the jet age, world turbulence, and the rise of Madison Avenue advertising. Holiday was a vibrant original, inspiring travel magazines that followed and leaving glorious photography and art as well as thought-provoking journalism in its wake.

Pamela Fiori, who began her renowned publishing career at Holiday magazine in 1968, was editor in chief of Travel + Leisure and Town & Country. Since retirement from Hearst, Fiori has authored and contributed to numerous books on travel and social history. Franck Durand is the founder and creative director of Paris-based Atelier Franck Durand, a creative design studio specializing in fashion, beauty, and lifestyle. In 2014, Durand relaunched Holiday magazine.
Inspirational and visually on trend, Ashley Hicks’s latest work is a pattern book for the twenty-first century. Offering insights and revelations, Hicks’s own exquisitely quirky and colorful historicist interiors are discussed with designs from the recent and faraway past.

Ashley Hicks has created a mix of manifesto, souvenir album, and confession in this collection of noteworthy rooms—featuring his own one-of-a-kind interiors along with rooms that have inspired him. The manifesto aspect is rather limited, since Hicks is not a great believer in aesthetic rules or the value of so-called good taste, but as a souvenir album, it charts Hicks’s personal creative journey of the last few years, illustrated with photographs of some favorite historical interiors and objects that represent a mixture of source material and inspiration.

The book’s twelve chapters reveal Hicks’s creative process, how he approaches different themes in his own interiors, furniture designs, and works of art, and how these themes can be applied to the works of others. Such subjects as flowers, color, layers, form, pattern, and memory are presented in the context of actual projects. Historical and recent interiors are discussed for their decorative value—notable rooms and architecture include the Pantheon in Rome; Emperor Maximilian’s tomb in Innsbruck; the Royal Pavilion, Brighton; and the Petit Trianon at Versailles. Hicks has created a book for devotees of decorating and the history of interior design.

Ashley Hicks is a British author, architect, interior and furniture designer, and photographer. He is the son of Lady Pamela Hicks and the legendary decorator David Hicks. His personal Instagram profile has amassed over 200,000 followers. Christian Louboutin is a celebrated French shoe designer.

Craig McDean: Manual

Craig McDean
Essay by Lisa Naftolin

The worlds of high-fashion models and car racing collide in this high-octane collection of images from one of the fashion world’s most celebrated photographers.

Before he was one of the fashion world’s most revered and sought-after photographers, Craig McDean trained and worked as a car mechanic in his hometown of Middlewich, England. In this new volume (the highly anticipated follow-up to McDean’s lauded first monograph, Amber, Guinevere, and Kate), the photographer celebrates his two main passions: cars and fashion. With McDean’s trademark energy and glamour, the images in this book capture the beauty, mystery, and sex appeal inherent in both the worlds of luxury fashion and luxury automobiles. Featuring some of fashion’s most well-known models juxtaposed against images of flame-covered race cars and chromium steel car parts, Craig McDean: Manual is a stylish exploration of the ways that fashion and car racing collide.

Craig McDean is a photographer and filmmaker who is renowned for his striking fashion imagery and portraiture. Having discovered photography by taking pictures of his rocker friends in the north of England, McDean moved to London, where he assisted before striking out on his own with assignments for i-D and The Face. McDean has photographed for Dior, Gucci, Yves Saint Laurent, Armani, Estee Lauder, and Calvin Klein as well as W, American, French, British, and Italian Vogue, and AnOther Magazine. He is a 2008 recipient of the ICP Infinity Award. Lisa Naftolin is the creative director, publishing and digital media, at the Guggenheim Museum in New York.
Target: 20 Years of Design for All

HOW TARGET REVOLUTIONIZED ACCESSIBLE DESIGN

FOREWORD BY KIM HASTREITER

Target sparked the democratization of design two decades ago, as the first retailer to forge partnerships with well-known and emerging designers to offer high style without the high price tag. This idea altered the fashion and style landscape forever—and became a retail game changer. Now readers can discover the inside story from those who were there—the designers, photographers, creators, superfans, and, of course, the Target guests.

For twenty years, Target's design partnerships have made a mark on culture at large with the retailer's brand promise of “Expect More. Pay Less,” embracing the belief that design should be accessible, too. At the center of “Design for All” are the designers—offering exclusive collections in stores or at another Target first, the pop-up shop. From Michael Graves to Isaac Mizrahi, Jean Paul Gaultier to Philippe Starck, Jason Wu, Alexander McQueen, Gwen Stefani, and more, Target has collaborated with more than 170 designers throughout the past two decades. And this book covers it all, with new glimpses behind some of the most iconic collections, including Missoni, Stephen Sprouse, and Lilly Pulitzer.

Target: 20 Years of Design for All is the definitive tale of Target’s impact on culture and retail with page after page recounting every one of those memorable years. Through beautiful photographs, advertising stills, sketches, and interviews with designers, influencers, and Target insiders, this book offers what readers love about Target: it’s chic and approachable, stylish and inclusive, with surprises around every corner.

Target, considered a leader in design, is one of the largest retailers in the United States with more than 1,800 stores across the country. Kim Hastreiter cofounded Paper, an independent pop-culture magazine, which she coedited for thirty-three years.
Bricks and Brownstone

CHARLES LOCKWOOD AND PATRICK W. CICCONE
PHOTOGRAPHY BY DYLAN CHANDLER

The much-awaited reissue and reexpression of the classic New York row-house book Bricks and Brownstone, with all-new and updated text, new color photography, and new design.

The classic book Bricks and Brownstone, the first and only book to examine in depth the architectural styles of the much-loved New York row house or “brownstone,” helped pave the way for a brownstone revival that transformed the very appearance of the city. This edition features new and updated text, and an abundance of all-new color photography, and offers to an eager audience the long-awaited reissue of the landmark volume in renewed and brilliant new form.

Because this book so beautifully illustrates the unique decorative features of the different architectural styles—the doorway framing, the ironwork embellishments, the handsome mantels, and the sometimes elaborate ceiling ornamentation, among other elements—it is an invaluable resource for the thousands who have undertaken the restoration of a row house to its original appearance.

Charles Lockwood authored seven books about American architecture and cities and wrote widely about architecture. He passed away in 2012. Patrick W. Ciccone is vice president for historic development at Crow Hill Development. He also teaches at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn. Dylan Chandler is a photographer who was born and raised and resides in New York’s Hell’s Kitchen.

California Romantica

DIANE KEATON
TEXT BY D.J. WALDIE
PHOTOGRAPHY BY LISA HARDAWAY AND PAUL HESTER

California Romantica is an expression of an ongoing love affair between film star Diane Keaton and the Spanish-style house. First published in 2007, this edition re-presents the popular book for a new generation at a more affordable size but with no diminishment of the beauty and charm of the original.

Curated, edited, and codesigned by film star Diane Keaton, California Romantica features houses in the Spanish Colonial Revival style with photography taken specifically for the book. The book gives us the vision of a committed preservationist who fell in love with the Colonial-era and Spanish Colonial Revival architecture of Southern California as a girl. Keaton puts it succinctly in her introduction: “I knew I wanted to share the magic I’d felt within the aura created by the presence of Spanish architecture in Southern California . . . I wanted to focus on details, a fountain, a staircase, a doorway . . . I wanted the drama of light to reveal secrets that lay hidden beyond the facades . . . I wanted us to give renewed vitality . . . to the historic dream of living in a perfect California Spanish home.” A testament to this vision, California Romantica is at once an invitation to wonder and an ode to an extraordinary tradition.

Diane Keaton is an Oscar-winning actress, director, and author, most recently for Rizzoli, of The House that Pinterest Built. D.J. Waldie is the author of Holy Land: A Suburban Memoir. Lisa Hardaway and Paul Hester are architectural photographers based in Fayetteville, Texas.

A.J. BAIME
FOREWORD BY MARIO ANDRETTI

This collection of stories profiling one hundred beautiful vehicles (and their owners) is the ultimate gift book for car lovers.

Stunning photography and Baime’s engaging essays celebrate everything drivers love about their cars—from technical specifications to satisfy gearheads to intangibles like a driver’s relationship with his or her car—making it truly “my ride.”

You want fast? Step on the gas in a Koenigsegg CCX, ’62 Lamborghini, or 1970 Pontiac GTO. You want classic? Here are the keys to a ’62 Corvette, ’57 Thunderbird, or 1930 BMW—the oldest Bimmer in the United States. You want cool? Take a ’64 Shelby Cobra, Tesla Model X, or Aston Martin Vulcan for a spin. You want one-of-a-kind? How about a ’52 Seagrave fire truck, ’73 VW Thing, or the Batmobile?

You also get to meet the owners. There’s the story of a pizza-delivery man who dodges polar bears in his Hyundai in Barrow, Alaska; an NBA star who endures Los Angeles traffic by having his Tesla drive for him; and a retired Kentucky entrepreneur with a 22-foot-long 1937 Cadillac, which he calls “the biggest, baddest car that could exist.”

A.J. Baime is author of numerous books, including Go Like Hell: Ford, Ferrari, and Their Battle for Speed and Glory at Le Mans. He is also a regular contributor to the Wall Street Journal. The name Mario Andretti is synonymous with speed. He is the only driver ever to win the Indianapolis 500, Daytona 500, and the Formula One World Championship.
Capturing a special moment in time in never-before-seen pictures: the pivotal relationship between the Beastie Boys and Run-DMC during the OG “Together Forever” concert tour and as burgeoning rap—and eventual pop-radio—stars.

Few forces in New York hip-hop proved as historically important with past, present, and future fandom than the Beastie Boys and Run-DMC. While they burst onto the music scene and crossed over from hip-hop to the mainstream in the 1980s, their popularity hasn’t dimmed over the years; in fact, both bands continually find new ardent fans daily.

“Together Forever” is an OG reference to the Beastie Boys and Run-DMC’s seminal, popular, and highly publicized 1987 joint concert tour. But “Together Forever” is more than a Run-DMC song or concert tour name; it’s symbolic of the strong bond of friendship between these two groups and how they significantly influenced each other, all while having a massive impact on both pop and hip-hop music. This visual time capsule includes scores of never-before-published shots taken by iconic skate, hip-hop, and punk photographer Glen E. Friedman of the bands in concert, goofing around with various performers of the time, and, of course, hanging out together. Including an introduction by Chris Rock and text contributions by the living band members of both groups, Together Forever is a must-have chronicle assembled by the ultimate photographer for Beastie Boys and Run-DMC fans.

Glen E. Friedman is a celebrated photographer of skate, punk, and hip-hop culture. Chris Rock is a comedian and actor. Chuck D is a rapper, author, producer, and founding member of Public Enemy. Michael “Mike D” Diamond and Adam “Ad-Rock” Horovitz are members of the Beastie Boys. DJ Run and D.M.C. are members of Run-DMC. The Fletcher Family

A LIFETIME IN SURF

DIBI FLETCHER
CONTRIBUTIONS BY MIKE DIAMOND, STEVEN VAN DOREN, JULIAN SCHNABEL, KELLY SLATER, AND C.R. STECYK III, AMONG OTHERS

Through fifty years of epic stories, art, and personal ephemera, The Fletcher Family spans surfing’s golden era to the present day, when bathing-suit model Dibi and competitive surfer Herbie met, to raising talented Christian and Nathan on boards and waves, to passing the torch to their skating-phenom grandson, Greyson.

Herbie Fletcher is a surfing legend. Fletcher and his sons, Christian and Nathan, made a habit of doing things exceptionally well and in their own way before they became the norm. But the Fletchers are not merely trailblazing surf and skate legends; they also are counterculture and subculture icons. T Magazine referred to them as having “punk family values.” Their sincere love for art and surfing and their collective DGAF attitude has earned them legions of devoted fans and friends from so many different worlds: music, fashion, streetwear, and art.

The epitome of both surfer cool and punk counterculture, the Fletcher family for the first time has put together a window into their immensely colorful life. A visual memoir of this near-mythological surf family, The Fletcher Family is sure to appeal to their massive surfing fan base, young skaters, and those who are interested in the Fletcher family and their place in Southern California as a subcultural force of nature.

Dibi Fletcher is a writer, unofficial COO of the Astrodeck surfing-equipment company, and the matriarch of the Fletcher family. Mike Diamond is a member of the Beastie Boys. Steven Van Doren is the son of Paul Van Doren, a founder of Vans shoes. Julian Schnabel is a painter and filmmaker. Kelly Slater is a professional surfer. C.R. Stecyk III is an American artist, photographer, and writer.

SCENTED STORIES

TEXTS BY ANTIGONE SCHILLING

The first volume to explore the fascinating stories behind Elsa Schiaparelli’s radical perfume creations, from fragrance notes to groundbreaking bottle design and innovative advertisements.

Elsa Schiaparelli was a revolutionary of twentieth-century fashion because of her creative collaborations with such artists as Jean Cocteau and Salvador Dalí and her unique, avant-garde designs. However, the impact of her inventive perfume creations is often overlooked. As early as 1928, Parfums Schiaparelli started producing unconventional perfumes that stunned the world with their boldness and the originality of their packaging, such as the Shocking fragrance, whose bottle was modeled after Mae West’s curvaceous figure.

This lavishly illustrated volume is a celebration of the house’s perfume innovations, with each chapter dedicated to one of their striking fragrances. Never-before-published advertising images and documents from the brand’s archives accompany the distinctive packaging designs that contributed to the perfumes’ immense success, while engaging texts penned by journalist Antigone Schilling offer insider anecdotes and in-depth discussions of Schiaparelli’s revolutionary approach to perfume. The cultural impact of Schiaparelli’s perfumes will fascinate admirers of the bold women of twentieth-century fashion and those who were enchanted by Schiaparelli and the Artists.

Adrian: Hollywood Designer

LEONARD STANLEY
FOREWORD BY ROBIN ADRIAN
TEXT BY MARK A. VIEIRA

From ruby slippers to fashion runways, Adrian: Hollywood Designer is a visual celebration of the life and work of the man behind some of the most memorable fashions of Hollywood’s golden age.

This book is a bright and vivacious look at the fashion, art, and homes of one of the most celebrated clothing designers of the twentieth century. Adrian (1903–1959) designed costumes for over 150 Hollywood productions, including fabulous gowns worn by the likes of Greta Garbo, Lana Turner, Joan Crawford, Judy Garland, and Katharine Hepburn, then went on to found one of the most popular and influential fashion labels of the mid-twentieth century: Adrian, LTD.

When he wasn’t dressing the stars of his day, Adrian abided by the personal motto “live gracefully.” He had a passion for art and interior design, as seen in his impeccably decorated homes, which he shared with his wife, Hollywood star Janet Gaynor, and his personal paintings and sketches.

The man who created the famous ruby slippers worn in The Wizard of Oz was also the first American designer honored with a retrospective at the Smithsonian Institution, and his influence can be felt on the runways in New York and Paris today. This is the first book on the famed Hollywood fashion and costume designer to be published with the cooperation of his family. With an introduction from the designer’s son as well as a trove of never-before-seen images and anecdotes taken from Adrian’s private archives, this is the definitive book on the life and legend of Adrian.

Leonard Stanley is a well-known interior designer with a passion for collecting Hollywood artifacts. He is the preeminent collector of sketches by many of Hollywood’s most legendary costume designers, including Adrian. Robin Adrian is the son of Gilbert Adrian and Janet Gaynor. Mark A. Vieira is a photographer and writer. He is the author of seventeen books, including works on Jean Harlow, Irving Thalberg, and Cecil B. DeMille.

Aesop

TEXTS BY JENNIFER DOWN AND DENNIS PAPHITIS
PHOTOGRAPHS BY YUTAKA YAMAMOTO
EDITED BY DAN GUNN

From the revered Australian skincare company Aesop, a debut volume presenting its rigorous passion for creating superlative products and their considered approach to design.

Since the founding of Aesop in 1987, its stores, products, and culture have been the expression of a complex, holistic set of carefully considered codes and principles. For the very first time within a book, the enigmatic brand documents the singular vision from which it was borne and the company customs that have allowed it to flourish.

The volume includes recollections of the early formative days of Dennis Paphitis’s hair salon and the first Melbourne store, tracing how and when Aesop’s distinct approach to retail hospitality and its meticulous formulations were conceived. It ranges from the cohesion of the brand through to early packaging, iconography, and campaigns, without neglecting the more imperceptible codes that serve to unite all its stores and entice customers into them in over twenty regions around the world. What emerges is how Aesop’s identity is a compound of its history and its singularity. The book also evokes the company’s many inspirations: its fascination with the written word, the architects who have added their singular perspectives, and the partners and collaborators who have helped make Aesop so much more than simply a skincare company.

Composed with photographs by the celebrated Japanese photographer Yutaka Yamamoto, this luxurious volume—an aesthetic handbook of sorts—argues the wisdom and intelligence of doing things well, doing them differently, and doing them for the long term.

Jennifer Down is an author, editor, and translator. She lives in Melbourne. Dennis Paphitis is the complicated Greek-Australian founder of Aesop. Yutaka Yamamoto is a Paris-based Japanese photographer known for his minimalistic and often dreamlike images. Dan Gunn is a Scottish novelist, editor, and translator living in Paris.

Phoenix

THOMAS MARS, LAURENT BRANCOWITZ, CHRISTIAN MAZZALAI, AND DECK D’ARCY

The first book from the French band Phoenix, who bridged the gap between French EDM and American indie music—and defined the sound of an era.

With one foot in the world of French touch house music that defined the late 1990s and the other in the world of post-punk pop that grew from Joy Division and New Wave, Phoenix have evolved from an edgy French band to one of the most influential indie acts of the last twenty years.

Drawing on the band’s own archives of snapshots and memorabilia and including original photography of everything from the band’s instruments to the notebooks in which every lyric and chord change are carefully notated, the book is a visual celebration of spectacular performances and a superfan’s chronicle of the evolution of a band from the studio to the stage.

Published to coincide with a series of anniversaries for the band—thirty years since their formation as teenagers in 1989; twenty since the release of their debut record in 1999; and ten since Grammy Award-winning Best Album Wolfgang Amadeus Phoenix in 2009—and with original interviews conducted with the band throughout, this book is an intimate celebration of a group whose particular brand of pop has struck a chord on both sides of the Atlantic.

Thomas Mars, Laurent Brancowitz, Christian Mazzalai, and Deck d’Arcy are Phoenix, a Grammy Award–winning indie rock/pop/EDM band from Versailles, France. They have released six full-length albums and tour internationally.

LARRY LEGASPI, THE 70s, AND THE FUTURE OF FASHION
RICK OWENS
CONTRIBUTIONS BY PAUL STANLEY, PATI LABELLE, PAT CLEVELAND, AND ANDRE LEON TALLEY

The first volume documenting the life and work of Larry Legaspi, the designer behind the iconic looks for musical acts including KISS, LaBelle, George Clinton, and Parliament.

One of the unsung heroes of fashion in the 70s, Larry Legaspi was a designer ahead of his time. Crafting a space-age look in silver and black leather, Legaspi created the look for the defining musical acts of the era, including KISS, Labelle, George Clinton, and Parliament. Dying of AIDS in 2001, Legaspi left twin legacies as both designer and curator that remain largely unexplored. This volume, authored by Rick Owens, fills in crucial gaps in the knowledge of Legaspi’s work and impact on the fashion world, while providing a dynamic visual presentation of the life and work of a legend. Filled with a blend of previously unpublished photographs of Legaspi’s creations as well as new images of Owens’s work, this stunning volume tells the story of the designer’s subversive sensibility. An essay by André Leon Talley and interviews with Patti LaBelle, Paul Stanley, Valerie Legaspi, and Pat Cleveland offer an intimate glimpse into Legaspi’s world.

Rick Owens is an American fashion designer and winner of a Cooper-Hewitt National Design Award. Paul Stanley is a musician, singer, and songwriter, best known for his work in KISS. Missoni

MASSIMILIANO CAPELLA IN COLLABORATION WITH THE MISSONI ARCHIVE
FOREWORDS BY MARIO BOSELLI AND LUCA MISSONI

A celebration of the unmistakable Missoni style, whose innovative approach mixes bold color, pattern, and material with an extraordinary sense of balance and elegance.

This is the first fully comprehensive book about Missoni, created with full access to the archives and with the support of the Missoni family. Lavishly designed, it features reproductions of Missoni patterns printed on special material and stitched into the binding between signatures along with other special features.

This volume was conceived as a design object, in which images, texts, original fabrics, drawings, color palettes, and fashion patterns speak to one another. Missoni celebrates an elegance that has become an artistic expression as well as something of a cultural and fashion revolution since the early 1950s, when Rosita and Ottavio Missoni began their creative journey into fashion and art, with a talent for experimentation that never betrayed the spirit of their origins in the decades to come.

Divided into thematic sections, each is introduced by an essay including quotes by the Missonis themselves, highlighting the artistic decisions that contributed to the success and recognizability of their fashion house. With previously unpublished material from both the family and the company archives, this volume is a look into the creative and artistic world of Missoni.

Massimiliano Capella is professor of costume and fashion history at the Bergamo University. Mario Boselli is the honorary president of “Camera Nazionale della Moda Italiana,” which promotes Italian Fashion internationally. Luca Missoni is the artistic director of the Missoni Archive and curates museum exhibitions for the brand.

THE WORLD OF ETHICAL JEWELRY
KYLE RODERICK

Jewelry, long associated with luxury, is also becoming a medium for social responsibility and ethical values. Kyle Roderick, an authority on ethical jewelry, profiles fifteen designers who are at the forefront of refashioning the medium for today’s consumers.

In the wake of Charles Leavitt’s insightful 2006 movie Blood Diamond, which told how conflict diamonds fund civil wars, the buying and wearing of ethically sourced and sustainably mined jewelry has become a priority in today’s luxury market. Bejeweled is the first book to cover this timely subject. Profiling leading international designers who are at the forefront of the ethical jewelry movement, this beautifully photographed publication examines how an ancient art is powering a green revolution in chic jewelry for everyone.

Included are renowned designers such as Pippa Small, an early user of fair-mined gold, who employs local artisans to fabricate her one-of-a-kind pieces; Dewey Nelson, a Native American Hopi who incorporates 1,000-year-old tribal motifs in his reclaimed-silver pieces; and Loren Nicole, whose jewelry features intricate hand-carved gemstones and 22-karat gold alloyed in the same formula used by ancient Roman goldsmiths. Illustrated with exquisite photographs of individual pieces, featured both alone and on celebrities, who are turning the red carpet “green” by wearing ethically sourced jewelry, Bejeweled is for all gemstone and design fans.

Journalist Kyle Roderick is the founder and editor in chief of Bijoux Review. She covers design-driven jewelry and timepieces for Forbes and other publications.

Morphosis
BUILDINGS AND PROJECTS: 2004–2018
THOM MAYNE

Sculptural, bold, innovative work by Pritzker Prize–winning architect Thom Mayne and his firm Morphosis, from 2004 to today.

A resounding masterpiece of architectural publishing, this volume, Rizzoli’s sixth on Morphosis and its founder, architect Thom Mayne, features the work of the award-winning interdisciplinary architectural and design practice over the past fourteen years. Known for its architecture of complexity, disruption, and ambiguity, Morphosis is on the cutting edge of exploration and discovery in design. Sometimes on the border of controversy with daring vision and provocative large-scale urban projects, the firm continually invites us to question what architecture is and can be while remaining sensitive to its central purpose—to provide safe, sheltering spaces for life, work, and play. This book documents the great variety of the firm’s creations across the globe, from an innovative public-housing complex in Madrid and a courthouse in Oregon to the San Francisco Federal Building, a new academic building for the Cooper Union in New York, the Perot Museum of Nature and Science in Texas, the new EOS Towers in Kuala Lumpur, and the Sejong M-Bridge, in Sejong City, South Korea. Like the architecture of this trailblazing firm, the book is an exhilarating demonstration of visual excitement, bold graphics, and innovative design.

Thom Mayne is an American architect based in Los Angeles and founding principal of the firm Morphosis. He helped found the seminal Southern California Institute of Architecture (SCI-Arc), where he is a trustee. He received the Pritzker Architecture Prize in 2005.

A GARDEN IN NORTHERN MOROCCO
UMBERTO PASTI AND NGOC MINH NGO
FOREWORD BY MARTINA MONDADORI SATOGO

A lovingly photographed tour of internationally renowned writer Umberto Pasti’s famous hillside garden in Morocco.

Italian writer and horticulturist Umberto Pasti’s passion for the wild flora of Tangier and its surrounding region led him to create his world-famous garden, Rohuna, where he has transplanted thousands of plants rescued from construction sites with the aid of men from the village.

Planted between two small houses is the Garden of Consolation: a series of rooms and terraces with lush vegetation, some rendering homage to the paintings of Henri Rousseau, others inspired by invented characters. Surrounding the Garden of Consolation are the Wild Garden and a hillside devoted to the wild flowering bulbs of northern Morocco, where indigenous species of narcissus, iris, crocus, scilla, gladiolus, and others bloom. With its stunning vistas and verdant fields, Rohuna is a garden of incomparable beauty with the mission to preserve the botanical richness of the region. Captured here in detail by celebrated photographer Ngoc Minh Ngo, the poetic beauty of this special and unique place is lovingly rendered for all the world to see and share.

Ngoc Minh Ngo is a celebrated photographer and the author of two books. Ngoc’s images have been published in publications such as T Magazine, Architectural Digest, Cabana, and House & Garden UK. Umberto Pasti is a well-known Italian writer and horticulturist. Martina Mondadori Sartogo is the founder of Cabana magazine and is the European editor at large for Town & Country magazine.

Arakawa: Diagrams for the Imagination

TEXTS BY CHARLES W. HAXTHAUSEN AND ITALO CALVINO

A revealing look at Arakawa’s unique achievements in painting and works on paper.

A handful of years after he arrived in New York from Tokyo as a young Neo-Dada sculptor, Arakawa began producing two-dimensional works that brought together text and schematic images. These “diagram paintings,” begun in the mid-1960s, offered elusive combinations of signs and shapes with words and phrases. With these paintings, he sought to stimulate the formation of mental images by the viewer—and for the viewer to engage both mind and eye in the act of perception.

Arakawa would continue this investigation of human consciousness through diagrammatic works on paper and canvas over the following two decades. He used a variety of materials and created works ranging from modest-sized drawings to vast paintings on multiple panels. This striking volume takes a close look at this crucial period in Arakawa’s art, prior to his return to three dimensions. Numerous illustrations, a new essay by Charles W. Haxthausen, and a historical text by Italo Calvino reveal an artist with a committed focus on our awareness of our bodies in the act of perceiving.

Charles W. Haxthausen is Robert Sterling Clark Professor of Art History, Emeritus, at Williams College, Williamstown, Massachusetts.

Jennifer Guidi

HELIOCENTRIC

TEXT BY STUART KRIMKO

This vibrant monograph commemorates Jennifer Guidi’s first exhibition with Gagosian and her first in Asia.

Jennifer Guidi’s “sand paintings” mix oil paint with sand to create surfaces of color and texture. Evolving from her earlier figurative works, these abstract sand paintings evoke the traditions of landscape and naturalist painting. Accomplished by applying a thick layer of sand to the painted ground and then making precise marks while the sand is still wet, the paintings’ luminous qualities and their textured relief register and generate minute shifts in perception, creating their own sense of ambient light. These physical and tactile emanations are based on her observations of light in Los Angeles, where she lives and works, and where hazy skies caused by the atmospheric conditions of the West Coast, as well as the city’s man-made pollution, make for extra-brilliant sunsets.

The fourteen paintings in the exhibition also include Guidi’s first triangular-shaped canvases, in a spectrum of colors, placing the organic accumulations of paint and sand within a sharp geometry.

Stuart Krimko is a poet, art writer, translator, and astrologer.
Jamali: A Mystical Journey of Hope
THE TRUE STORY OF AN AMERICAN ARTIST

JAMALI

A coming-to-America success story, this is the autobiography of Pakistani-born American artist Jamali, who originated Mystical Expressionism and whose mission is to bring peace to the world through art.

In this illustrated memoir, the reader is treated to an epic saga covering seven decades and three continents about an artist’s dream for a more peaceful world. The eldest son of a prominent family living in the foothills of the Himalayas, Jamali experienced the horrors of war through the Indian Partition, which led him to pursue a life of peace through art on a prolific scale, producing more than 40,000 original works to date. The complex surfaces and mystical imagery found in Jamali’s paintings have been compared to the neo-Expressionists Anselm Kiefer and Georg Baselitz. His gestural techniques link him to Jackson Pollock and the New York School. But the preeminent art critic Donald Kuspit observed that Jamali’s singular method required its own name—Mystical Expressionism.

One hundred artworks individually selected by the artist accompany the engaging text in a separate section beautifully printed on a specially coated paper. Inspired by people such as Gandhi who advocated change through nonviolent measures, Jamali hopes to change our lives by sharing his story of art and peace.

Jamali is one of the most successful artists in America and one of the most collected living artists globally. He has galleries in New York, Florida, and Denmark.

Shio Kusaka

GAGOSIAN

This elegant monograph marks Shio Kusaka’s first solo exhibition with Gagosian and her first exhibition in Italy.

Shio Kusaka’s ceramic work often incorporates playful details and subject matter, from basketballs and fruit to dinosaurs, raindrops, and wood grain. However, in this new body of work, she further explores her geometric abstractions, offering a more direct view of her technical mastery as she adheres to a single-process approach to study the possibility of endless permutations.

In previous abstract works, Kusaka often ended a line or grid pattern once it became distorted by the curvature of the pot, producing fragmented, interlocking patterns that appear as overlapping drawings, contradicting the three-dimensional volume. In these new works, however, she takes an almost topographic approach by carving, painting, and even drawing with pencil intricate lines along the surfaces of each pot, allowing the shape of each vessel to dictate the curves of the lines.

Gagosian has evolved into a global network with sixteen exhibition spaces in New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco, London, Paris, Geneva, Rome, Athens, and Hong Kong. Gagosian’s vibrant contemporary program features the work of leading international artists, as well as unparalleled historical exhibitions. The gallery has a rich tradition of publishing scholarly exhibition catalogs, artist monographs, and catalogues raisonnés.

THE POWER OF HOPE THROUGH THE EYES OF CHILDREN
BOBBY SAGER

Beginning in 2001, Bobby, Elaine, and their two young children lived among earthquake victims in Pakistan, former child soldiers in Rwanda, and Tibetan monks in India in order to set up aid programs.

Using his camera to begin a friendly dialogue, especially with the children he met, Bobby placed himself “eyeball to eyeball” with his subjects and unlocked their universal expressions of dignity, ingenuity, and hope.

Bobby Sager grew up in Malden, Massachusetts, and attended Brandeis University and Yale School of Management. Following his early business successes, he dedicated himself full-time to philanthropy.

Minä Perhonen

AKIRA MINAGAWA
CONTRIBUTIONS BY ISSEY MIYAKE AND SUSAN BROWN

The first large-format book on the house of Minä Perhonen, one of the most profoundly Japanese of the women’s lines to come out of Tokyo in the last three decades.

A unique blend of Scandinavian sensibility and Japanese, Minä Perhonen is characterized by a tenacious individuality that often contradicts the prevailing trends in Japanese high fashion, with an emphasis on unmistakably feminine silhouettes and bright, minimalistic prints that have as much in common with the work of Alvar Aalto and Marimekko as they do with traditional Japanese design.

This thoughtfully designed volume gathers the most iconic work outputted by the fashion house, highlighting the rich and witty world of Minä Perhonen. A combination of new and archival photography as well as a collection of the illustrations showcase Minagawa’s subtle approach to design while critical essays by Issey Miyake and Susan Brown offer insightful commentary about Minagawa’s work.

Italian Renaissance Villas and Gardens

TEXTS BY LUCIA IMPELLUSO
PHOTOGRAPHY BY DARIO FUSARO

A stunning collection of photographs celebrating the excellence of the Italian Renaissance period through palaces and gardens built between the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries.

The book illustrates ten locations of extraordinary artistic and architectural interest, conceived by wealthy Italian families and dynasties as urban villas or country houses centered around the pursuit of entertainment and leisure. These lavishly decorated and frescoed palaces are adorned with handcrafted furniture and works of art and surrounded by gardens that retain their original layout to this day—a very rare feature.

A historical text introduces each venue, giving an overview of its origins. The villas have been specially photographed for this book by Dario Fusaro, with views of both the palace interiors and their grounds, as well as the gardens, glimpses of the halls, details of the furnishings, and a focus on the frescoes, where still preserved.

Explanatory captions offer an iconographic interpretation of the most interesting frescoes, such as those of Veronese at Villa Barbaro. For the first time, Fusaro also employs a drone with the purpose of capturing the architectural structure and elements of each Italian Renaissance garden, from above and as a whole.

This all-access volume is essential for fans and readers interested in Italian art, for those who love to travel through Italy in search of places of artistic interest, and for those seeking out green tourist destinations.

Lucia Impelluso is a historian of architecture and an expert in the study of historical gardens. Her publications on gardens have been translated into different languages and awarded important prizes both in Italy and France.

The production of exclusive rugs continues upon the request of selected clients, whose houses have been photographed for the book. Currently, Pucci collaborates with Cappellini, Kartell, Bisazza, Illy, and many others on their interior design projects.

This book documents the exhibition spaces and the collection on display at the Bisazza Foundation: the museum created by one of the major luxury brands in the design sector and a leading manufacturer of glass mosaics.

The generous space, which had once served as a factory for the famous colored glass mosaics, has now been beautifully converted into a 80,730-square-foot contemporary space for architecture, sculpture, design, and photography.

The complex still holds the soul of the craftsmanship it once contained and now displays an astonishing collection of works by international artists and architects such as Richard Meier, Patricia Urquiola, Alessandro Mendini, Ettore Sottsass, John Pawson, Arik Levy and Marcel Wanders. The works elegantly combine the unlimited imagination of grand scale sculptures with the precise and rigorous mastering of finishing details and materials of the mosaics.

This volume closes with spaces devoted to architectural photography, which showcases works by authoritative figures from the world of photography.

DIESEL, DREAM, DISRUPTION, DEVIATION, DENIM

EDITED BY SUSIE LAU

A unique book for fashion lovers which investigates Diesel’s journey through denim, highlighting the innovations that took the denim world by storm and the aesthetic relevance of the pieces today.

In forty years of activity, the Diesel brand has managed to construct a world that communicates values of rebellion, nonconformity, and individuality. This book celebrates Diesel’s irreverence and innovation in the rejection of the often overly serious vernacular that surrounds denim.

Diesel’s denim has really been the gateway into a much wider and larger lifestyle arc, masterminded by Renzo Rosso. Denim is the fabric of Diesel, but in-between the warp and weft of those threads, what Diesel really communicates is something that goes far beyond the physical garment.

In addition to shooting and recontextualizing the archives, the volume also looks at the present, on how the denim permeates and punctuates Diesel’s world today, concluding with the exciting output from Diesel Red Tag as more and more collaborators (Shayne Oliver, Glenn Martens, and more to come) are added to the fold.

This volume is not an academic study, nor is it a chronological retelling of Diesel’s history in denim. It is a tongue-in-cheek compendium about Diesel’s denim universe. New images shot by four different photographers are interspersed with archival visual material, campaigns, and editorials.

This book will represent one of the most effective and extravagant visions of architecture, one that links the new generations and the old world.

In the past few years, Mexico has brought to light a new generation of architects whose extraordinary vision and productivity has positioned the country among the most creative design cultures of the world. Under his own firm FR-EE, since 2000 Fernando Romero has designed and created a number of projects which represent a new vision of Mexican and world architecture. Romero’s approach to architecture is innovative and an inspirational tool for empowering future generations.

The volume will focus on three themes that intertwine throughout the content of the book. On-site photographs (mainly aerial views) highlight the different places where FR-EE works, from urban centers to the desert. The location is what drives FR-EE’s creative work, while the practice strives to investigate the dynamic forces of each site and client. Inspirational photographs give the reader a vision of how Romero’s perspective shifts between different focuses of references, and reimagines them in new symbolic visions of the world (from monuments to colors, from natural elements to animals). The images include renderings, photographs, diagrams, plans, and sections. The projects are presented in situ and through architectural drawings, so as to explain the projects’ concepts and contents.

FR-EE is a global architecture and industrial design firm founded by Fernando Romero. Deyan Sudjic is the author of The Language of Things and The Edifice Complex, and is now the director of the Design Museum, London.

The album, published in 1996 in China, features almost all of the famous figures in literature and fine art during the 1980s and 1990s, including Zhang Yimou, Chen Kaige, Jiang Wen, He Xuntian, Tan Dun, Bei Dao, Wang Anyi, Shi Tiesheng, Chen Cun, and Cui Jian, among others. In order to make this picture album, Xiao Quan traveled around China, and it took him nearly ten years to complete it. This book returns to that project to present it to a wider audience.

This is a personal and fascinating documentation of China’s late 1980s through the 1990s, capturing the drastic social change of the country’s first decade of economic reform. Through an attentive selection of his most significant portraits of ordinary people around China and a group of emerging artists, this book aims at a comprehensive depiction of Xiao Quan’s generation, giving a new perspective on Chinese cultural evolution and contemporary society.

Xiao Quan is widely considered the finest Chinese portrait photographer alive. Lü Peng is a Chinese curator, critic, and art historian.

Alexander Ponomarev

THE SECOND VOYAGE

SILVIA BURINI AND GIUSEPPE BARBIERI

This eagerly awaited first monograph focuses on Alexander Ponomarev, one of Russia’s most eminent and singular contemporary artists.

Alexander Ponomarev is one of Russia’s most widely known contemporary artists, renowned both at home and abroad. In 2014, he was featured in Time magazine as one of the 100 Leading Global Thinkers thanks to the vast range of devices he employs to express his ideas, such as drawings, vast, complex installations, and a variety of technologies. He also captures some of the planet’s most extreme and least accessible landscapes, symbolizing what he views as a world that is “culturally and morally adrift.”

The themes he tackles are those he considers of critical relevance to today’s world: the rapport between science and art, the exploration of the Arctic and Antarctic, the retrieval of ancient engineering traditions vs. today’s advanced technologies, and the crucial and urgent issue of climate change.

The volume comprises two ample introductory essays describing his position in the Russian context of art production over the twentieth and twenty-first centuries and his roots in the artistic and humanist culture of the early modern era (Vitruvius, Leonardo, Titian, and the major geographical explorations, etc.).

Silvia Burini is director of the Center for the Study of Russian Arts (CSAR) at Ca’ Foscari University in Venice. Giuseppe Barbieri is full professor of history of modern art at Ca’ Foscari University. He has authored and curated over forty books and organized numerous exhibitions.
Nyoman Masriadi
TELEPATHY CONTACT
EDITED BY DEMETRIO PAPARONI

The work of Nyoman Masriadi, one of the leading Indonesian contemporary artists from the post-Suharto era.

This stunning volume comprehensively tackles Nyoman Masriadi’s artistic universe, which is considered to be among those that have most strongly impacted the definition of the new art of Southeast Asia. He is Southeast Asia’s most well-received contemporary artist at auctions, and the first living Southeast Asian artist whose work has topped $1 million at auction.

Masriadi’s paintings frequently depict superhuman figures whose narratives, while rooted in Indonesian cultural history, offer witty and often biting social commentary on contemporary life and global pop culture. Through his expert control of light, shadow, and volume, Masriadi endows the monumental characters of his works with a sculptural, almost three-dimensional presence. Sometimes these characters appear in the archetypal roles of comic-book heroes, cowboys, soldiers, and athletes; but just as frequently, they are simply powerfully built people engaged in solitary acts of strength or captured in private moments of vulnerability.

Demetrio Paparoni is an art critic, curator, and essayist. He has written and edited numerous books and monographs, including Chuck Close (2002) and—revealing the contemporary Asian world—on Wang Guangyi (2013), Natee Utarit (2017), and Ronald Ventura (2018).

Portraits of a Master’s Heart for a Silent Dreamland
AI XUAN
AI XUAN, CONTRIBUTION BY HSIUNG YI CHING

The first illustrated monograph in English devoted to the work of Ai Xuan, the most influential contemporary oil painter and leading representative of Chinese realism.

Ai Xuan is considered one of the most outstanding Chinese contemporary realistic painters. In 2004, working together with other leading Chinese painters using a realistic style, he formed an artistic group called Beijing Realism, later renamed Chinese Realism. This group has since become the key force shaping the promotion of realism in Chinese contemporary painting, including an annual national exhibition of realistic paintings.

Overcoming the tragedies of his poet father, Ai Qing, political movements, and his tumult-infused childhood, Xuan transforms all these harsh life experiences into his artistic creations. These works lead readers into the inner world of someone who is able to capture his sympathy for helplessness in life through paintings with astonishing precision.

This thoughtfully curated book reviews his art career through a selection of his most representative masterpieces from each stage of his development, alongside comprehensive analysis by the art critic and professor Hsiung Yi Ching.

Ai Xuan’s works are widely collected by important museums and art collectors. Hsiung Yi-Ching is a Professor at the Department of Calligraphy and Painting Art at Chang Jung Christian University in Tainan, Taiwan.
Italian Frescos
FROM Giotto to Tiepolo
CURATED BY TOMASO MONTANARI

A tribute to the excellence of Italian frescos in a large-format volume, featuring the paintings in extraordinary detail—a prestigious volume for the art lover’s library.

Between the fourteenth and the eighteenth centuries, the art of fresco painting was found across all regions of Italy. This volume aims to illustrate the most significant periods still visible today in churches, convents, and in the palaces of the Italian courts, as well as in the villas of the enlightened aristocracy. Starting with Giotto, the great pictorial cycles from across the centuries—the fourteenth century, the centuries of the Renaissance, the baroque, and the Venetian eighteenth century—are all presented in stunning reproductions. The high-quality images are displayed full-page, along with several close-ups that allow the reader to observe details of the artwork found on inaccessible walls, vaults, and domes.

An introduction written by a well-known historian of Italian art narrates how the art of fresco painting originated and developed in Italy. Each period is also briefly introduced by an art-historical fact sheet.

Tomaso Montanari is an art historian who specializes in the baroque period. Formerly a pupil of Paola Barocchi at the Scuola Normale of Pisa, he is a professor at the University of Naples. As a columnist for several Italian newspapers, Montanari is one of today’s most influential and original voices in the debate on artistic heritage and the preservation of the Italian territory.

THE NABI COLLECTION OF VICKI AND ROGER SANT

EDITED BY ELSA SMITHGALL
CONTRIBUTIONS BY SARAH BERTALAN, ISABELLE CAHN, CLÉMENT DESSY, DOROTHY KOSINSKI, KATHERINE M. KUENZLI, AND ELSA SMITHGALL

An invitation to the colorful, dynamic world of the Nabis, a circle of Post-Impressionist avant-garde artists whose members, including Bonnard and Vuillard, celebrated both everyday life and the decorative arts.

Inspired by Paul Gauguin in the last decade of the nineteenth century, the Nabis saw themselves as prophets of a new art. This vibrant illustrated book showcases rarely seen paintings, prints, and decorative arts by the visionary artists associated with the Nabis: Pierre Bonnard, Maurice Denis, Henri Evenepoel, Aristide Maillol, Paul Ranson, Ker-Xavier Roussel, Félix Vallotton, Édouard Vuillard, and others.

Essays by leading scholars of European modernism explore the relationship between Nabi art and intimacy, the influence of Symbolist poetry and literature, and printmaking techniques. Delving into their artistic philosophies, collaborations, and creative methods, the book offers rich insights into how the Nabis worked across artistic disciplines and media to break down the artificial barriers between the fine and applied arts. This important volume significantly enriches the understanding of the Nabis’ lasting contribution to the history of modern art.

The Statue of Liberty

THE MONUMENTAL DREAM

TEXT BY ROBERT BELOT
PREFACE BY DIANE VON FURSTENBERG
IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE STATUE OF LIBERTY–ELLIS ISLAND FOUNDATION, INC.

Timed to publish with the opening of the Statue of Liberty Museum, this book celebrates the story of the statue, from inception to today.

The Statue of Liberty’s untold story of her building, restoration, and iconic place in the world is brought to life through the fascinating lens of archival images, ephemera from the museum’s collection, and today’s most compelling photography of the restored and resplendent statue against the New York City skyline. This celebration is sure to be treasured by Americans, tourists, students of architecture and history, and all those drawn to the world’s beacon of freedom.

The Statue of Liberty is more than a monument. It is a symbol of freedom that draws more than four million visitors annually from around the world. Officially named Liberty Enlightening the World, the statue was a joint effort between America and France to commemorate the centennial of the American Declaration of Independence. The book follows the story as told in the new museum—from its conception and creation to its restoration in 1986 to Lady Liberty’s place as a shining icon to the world.

In 1982, The Statue of Liberty–Ellis Island Foundation, Inc. was founded when President Ronald Reagan asked Lee Iacocca, then chairman of Chrysler Corporation, to head a private-sector effort to raise funds for the restoration and preservation of the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island. Going by the title of the “Godmother of the Statue of Liberty”, fashion icon Diane von Furstenberg is head of the $100-million fundraising campaign for the Statue of Liberty Museum. Robert Belot is a university professor at Université Jean Monnet Saint-Étienne and the author of Bartholdi, The Man Who Invented Liberty.

Audubon’s Animals

THE VIVIPAROUS QUADRUPEDS OF NORTH AMERICA

JOHN JAMES AUDUBON

INTRODUCTION BY KRISTOFER M. HELGEN

Reproduced from an archival copy, this handsome boxed set includes a new edition of John James Audubon’s classic work on animals, along with twenty-four facsimile prints suitable for framing.

Following the success of his Birds of America, John James Audubon set out to document North America’s mammals—many never before depicted or seen outside of their native habitat—in the breathtaking color and detail that was his trademark. First published in 1854, Audubon’s portraits of the nation’s native mammals are still considered by many to include the finest animal prints ever published.

To create this edition of Audubon’s classic work, the original archive edition housed at London’s Natural History Museum has been specially photographed and each of the 150 hand-colored prints painstakingly reproduced. The book also includes information on the current biological names and conservation status for each species, as some have sadly become extinct or endangered since Audubon’s time, making this a welcome addition to the collections of bibliophiles and nature lovers alike.

John James Audubon was a naturalist and painter and is considered one of the greatest ornithological artists of all time. Kristofer M. Helgen is a research associate at both New York’s American Museum of Natural History and London’s Natural History Museum. Until 2017, he was a research zoologist at the Smithsonian Institution and curator in charge at the National Museum of Natural History in Washington, D.C.
Francesca Woodman

PORTRAIT OF A REPUTATION

NORA BURNETT ABRAMS AND DREW SAWYER

Never-before-published work by an iconic woman artist from the very start of her career.

Francesca Woodman took her first photograph at the age of thirteen. From the time she was a teenager until her death at twenty-two, she produced a fascinating body of work exploring gender, representation, and sexuality by photographing her own body and those of her friends. Featuring approximately forty unique vintage prints, as well as notes, letters, postcards, and other ephemera related to the artist’s burgeoning career, the volume, which accompanies an exhibition of the same name at MCA Denver, details both Woodman’s creative and personal coming-of-age during the years 1975–79.

Francesca Woodman: Portrait of a Reputation considers how the artist came into her creative voice and her singular approach to photography at a notably young age. Ranging from portraits in her studio/apartment in college to self-portraits in the bucolic Colorado landscape in which she was raised, these works capture Woodman’s hallmark approach to art making: enigmatic, rigorous, and poignant. The volume also includes select photographs of Woodman taken by friend and RISD classmate George Lange during this period. Taken together, they present a nuanced and in-depth study of this formative period in the development of this groundbreaking artist.

Nora Burnett Abrams is the Ellen Bruss Curator and Director of Planning at MCA Denver. Drew Sawyer is the Phillip Leonian and Edith Rosenbaum Leonian Curator of Photography at the Brooklyn Museum, New York.
Unrealism

NEW FIGURATIVE PAINTING

INTRODUCTION BY JEFFREY DEITCH
ESSAYS BY ARIA DEAN, JOHANNA FATEMAN, AND ALISON GINGERAS

The best new figurative painting of the last five years, created by a young generation of artists and vital practitioners, reflects the return of the oldest art form to address the challenge of contemporary representation.

Today’s figurative artists are immersed in the digital world, often sourcing circulated imagery and drawing on digital techniques in their painting process. In many works brushstrokes are more precise, lines are sharper, and color is more highly keyed. The seamless collage of their compositions reflects native familiarity with Photoshop aesthetics. The artist’s touch is more mediated, the facture more flat. The expressionism is in the image, not in the paint handling. In others, an easy familiarity with art history, and a self-determined approach to sampling disparate ideas and styles, reflects contemporary conditions.

Unrealism’s texts and visual essays connect the present moment in painting to the early 1980s, when the emergence of artists like Jean-Michel Basquiat, Francesco Clemente, Keith Haring, David Salle, and Julian Schnabel revitalized figurative art after the extended dissolution of Minimalism, to earlier formulations of subversive or “strange” figurative techniques in the work of Francis Picabia; to larger cultural dialogues surrounding identity and representation; to the circulation of imagery and changed notions of originality.

Jeffrey Deitch is a New York and Los Angeles-based art dealer. Aria Dean is assistant curator of net art and digital culture at Rhizome. Johanna Fateman is a writer, songwriter, musician, and record producer. Alison Gingeras is a curator and writer, based in New York and Warsaw.
Vincenzo De Cotiis
ESSAYS BY ANNE BONY AND TOM DELAVAN

The furniture and interiors of Milanese designer Vincenzo De Cotiis reflect the legacy of Italian minimalism behind his elegant appropriation of salvaged materials.

“De Cotiis feels free, even compelled, to explore the ambient tension between crumbling antiquity and futuristic minimalism.” — T Magazine

The first book on the work of architect and artist Vincenzo De Cotiis is a celebration of refined aesthetics. Incorporating salvaged materials into his tables, chairs, lighting fixtures, cabinets, and screens, De Cotiis’s world appears ageless and graceful. The Milanese designer developed a reputation for stripping domestic spaces and hotel projects back to their Art Nouveau, Napoleonic, or even ancient frames, letting the natural wear of a building’s interior breathe history through inhabited space.

As a designer, he is preoccupied with the weathering effect of time. His objects marry patinated and uneven finishes in compositions that incorporate traditional Italian craftsmanship and materials including Murano glass. Both his renowned interior architecture and his furniture works reflect the influence of the artist’s forefathers, Gio Ponti and Carlo Scarpa.

Anne Bony is an author on the subject of twentieth-century world design. Tom Delavan is design and interiors director of T: The New York Times Style Magazine.
Ed Hardy and the Tattoo Renaissance

ART FOR LIFE

KARIN BREUER

CONTRIBUTIONS BY SHERRY FOWLER, JEFF GUNDERSON, ED HARDY, AND JOEL SELVIN

Legendary American tattoo artist Ed Hardy’s groundbreaking tattoos, flash, drawings, and artworks are gathered together for the first time in one brash book.

Ed Hardy’s (b. 1945) unique vision spans decades, creating an indelible mark on popular culture. Accompanying a major exhibition, this profusely illustrated survey of his life in art traces his inspirations, rooted both in traditional American tattooing of the first half of the twentieth century and in the imagery of Japan’s ukiyo-e era. Hardy, raised in Southern California, became intrigued with tattoo art at the age of ten, setting up shop in his parents’ den. After attending the San Francisco Art Institute in the 1960s, he rejected a graduate fellowship from Yale to apprentice at studios up and down the West Coast. It was his intention to rescue tattooing from its subculture, “outsider” status and elevate it to at least the level of folk art.

Hardy’s success at breathing new life into the art form is chronicled in a plethora of tattoo designs, paintings, drawings, prints, and three-dimensional work spanning fifty years. While the world that inspires him may be lost, Hardy’s distinct visual language is vibrantly alive within American visual vernacular, synonymous to some with the spirit of the West Coast itself.

Karin Breuer is the curator in charge of the Achenbach Foundation of Graphic Arts at the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco. Sherry Fowler is an art historian specializing in Japanese Buddhist art at the University of Kansas. Jeff Gunderson is librarian and archivist at the San Francisco Art Institute. Don Ed Hardy is a legend in the tattoo world. Joel Selvin is a San Francisco–based music critic and author.

ESSAYS BY ROBERT STORR
AND CHARLES STUCKEY
CONTRIBUTIONS BY SUSAN DAVIDSON
AND ROBERT KUSHNER

This long-overdue monograph rediscovers the fifty-year career of Robert De Niro, Sr., an important New York School painter and poet.

The first comprehensive monograph on painter and poet Robert De Niro, Sr. (1922–1993), a major contributor to postwar American art, known for his unique, bold style of painterly representation. De Niro was a visionary artist in the early days of Abstract Expressionism and a celebrated member of the New York School of painters, along with Mark Rothko, Willem de Kooning, and Jackson Pollock.

Over the course of his fifty-year career, he painted portraits, still lifes, the female nude, and interiors with a signature gestural painting style and brilliant color, which bear the influence of Henri Matisse as well as his teacher, Hans Hofmann. During the height of Abstract Expressionism and Pop Art in the 1960s, De Niro remained faithful to his own vision in his paintings and poetry; today his powerful figural works are ripe for rediscovery.

This lavishly illustrated book brings together De Niro’s paintings, prints, and drawings as well as a never-before-published selection of his writings and poetry. Featuring essays by noted scholars and an illustrated biography including many unpublished photographs and ephemera, this seminal volume explores the depth and breadth of De Niro’s oeuvre.

Robert De Niro, Jr., is an American actor, producer, and director. Robert Storr is a painter and the former dean of the School of Art at Yale University. He was a curator, Department of Paintings and Sculpture, at the Museum of Modern Art, New York. Charles Stuckey is an independent scholar who has led a distinguished career as curator at the National Gallery of Art, the Art Institute of Chicago, the Minneapolis Institute of Art, and the Kimbell Art Museum. Susan Davidson was a former curator at the Guggenheim Museum and the Menil Collection. Robert Kushner is an American painter best known for his involvement in the Pattern and Decoration movement in the 1970s.

Art and Race Matters: The Career of Robert Colescott

RAPHAELA PLATOW, LOWERY STOKES SIMS, AND MATTHEW WESLEY

The most comprehensive volume devoted to the life and work of pioneering African American artist Robert Colescott, accompanying the largest traveling exhibition of his work ever mounted.

Robert Colescott (1925–2009) was a trailblazing artist, whose august career was as unique as his singular artistic style. Known for figurative satirical paintings that exposed the ugly ironies of race in America from the 1970s through the late 1990s, his work was profoundly influential to the generations of artists that have followed him, such as Kara Walker, Kehinde Wiley, and Henry Taylor, among many others.

This volume surveys the entirety of Colescott’s body of work, with contributions by more than ten curators and writers, including a substantive essay by the show’s cocurator, the renowned Lowery Stokes Sims. It provides a detailed stylistic analysis of his politically inflected oeuvre, focusing on Colescott’s own consideration of his work in the context of the grand traditions of European painting and contemporary polemic. In addition, the book features reminiscences and thought pieces by a variety of family, friends, students, curators, dealers, and scholars on his work as well as a selection of writings by the artist himself. Relying on previously unpublished transcripts of lectures, reviews, and archival materials provided by institutions and individuals, the book will provide a fuller story of the artist’s life and career.

Raphaela Platow is the Alice & Harris Weston Director and Chief Curator of the Contemporary Arts Center, Cincinnati. Lowery Stokes Sims is a dedicated advocate for diversity and inclusion in the art world. She is an independent curator after working for the Museum of Arts and Design, the Studio Museum in Harlem, and the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Matthew Weseley is an independent art historian. He is currently working on an academic monograph on the work of Robert Colescott.

Daniel Brush: Jewels Sculpture

VIVIENNE BECKER
INTRODUCTION BY NICOLAS BOS

Forty years of the legendary artist and sculptor
Daniel Brush’s sublime work with jewels.

A unique figure in the world of contemporary art, Daniel Brush is in equal measure artist and craftsman. Over the course of forty years, Brush has created an unparalleled body of work, whose scope ranges from large-scale abstract drawings to sculptures in steel, aluminum, and gold.

Collected here are more than 150 objects that bring to the fore Brush’s astonishing work with jewels. Far from the products of the world of commercial jewelry, these are jewel-encrusted objects of virtue and fantasy that reflect not just the artist’s rigorous personal aesthetic and mastery of technique, but his lifelong fascinations with philosophy and Asian thought, and his exhaustive knowledge of the history of precious stones.

With photography made of the objects in situ inside Brush’s studio in New York City, this book presents not only a catalog of his jewel work to date, but also an ethereal portrait of the artist himself. Housed in a slipcase, with photographs by Takaaki Matsumoto and an illuminating text by Vivienne Becker, this is an intimate study of the work of a master artist and a beautiful object in itself.

Vivienne Becker is an award-winning jewelry writer, historian, journalist, broadcaster, and author of many books on the history of jewelry design. Nicolas Bos is a writer and curator of jewelry and CEO at Van Cleef & Arpels.

THE COLOR WOODCUTS OF
GUSTAVE BAUMANN:
A CATALOGUE RAISONNÉ

GALA CHAMBERLAIN
ESSAYS BY NANCY E. GREEN AND
THOMAS LEECH
FOREWORD BY MARTIN F. KRAUSE

A tribute to Gustave Baumann, a master color-woodcut artist whose prints helped form a popular image of America’s natural beauty that has endured from the first half of the twentieth century to today.

Endowed with a deft hand and an eye for luminous color, Baumann (1881–1971) transformed American woodblock printing over his seventy-year career. This complete record of the artist’s printed works, three decades in the making, includes early etchings and linocuts, 182 editioned color woodcuts, and hundreds of printed ephemera. More than 1,000 precise reproductions, many published for the first time, are illuminated by essays tracing Baumann’s biography, techniques, and artistic practices.

An expressive carver, Baumann handled the entire printing process himself, making him a key figure in the American Arts and Crafts movement. German-born, Baumann settled in Santa Fe and became a central figure in the artistic community. His brilliantly colored landscapes of the Southwest and California coastline, celebrated in his day, are highly sought after by collectors today. This monumental publication allows for an unprecedented appreciation of one of the finest color-woodblock artists of the twentieth century.

Gala Chamberlain is the trustee of the Ann Baumann Trust and director of the Annex Galleries, Santa Rosa, California. Nancy E. Green is the Gale and Ira Drukier Curator of European and American Art, Prints, and Drawings, 1800–1945 at the Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art, Cornell University. Thomas Leech is director of the press at the Palace of the Governors and a curator at the New Mexico History Museum, Santa Fe.
Broken Nature
DESIGN TAKES ON HUMAN SURVIVAL
PAOLA ANTONELLI

The XXII Triennale di Milano exhibition Broken Nature: Design Takes on Human Survival highlights a range of international architecture and design projects that underline the concept of restorative design.

By bringing together the voices of a number of curators, scientists, scholars, designers, and artists, the XXII Triennale di Milano seeks to engage its visitors with questions of climate change, migration, artificial intelligence, politics, gender, labor, economics, social justice, and natural histories. This exhibition catalog highlights objects and concepts at all scales that reconsider humans’ relationship with their environment, including research into both natural and social ecosystems. The aim is to trace design’s ability to move us into a more constructive sense of indebtedness toward nature.

This volume will appeal to the design community as well as a broader readership and scholars who study the sociological, economic, political, and personal ramifications of design as it relates to the environment.

Paola Antonelli is senior curator in the department of architecture and design of the Museum of Modern Art, where she has worked since 1994. She has lectured worldwide in settings ranging from peer conferences to global interdisciplinary gatherings such as the World Economic Forum in Davos.

Roberta B. Marks
WORKS AND WORDS: A PERSONAL ANTHOLOGY
ROBERTA B. MARKS

The first monograph on artist Roberta B. Marks explores her collages and constructions, which focus on the themes of memory, time, and transcendence through a feminist and Buddhist perspective.

Marks creates constructions that have an intimacy to them and at the same time contain entire worlds of feeling and memory. Each is a vignette—a narrative of a personal nature. She transforms a range of objects and materials, often of mundane and humble origin, into eloquent and highly personal forms of self-expression. Marks’s work speaks to the human impulse to collect, preserve, and immortalize.

Her pieces are intuitive and instinctual, exuding a sense of mystery. The viewer enters into an intensely private realm, yet the themes are universal—loss, longing, old age, death, repression, and liberation—thus evoking a feeling of familiarity. A practicing Buddhist, Marks achieves her clarity through daily meditation. She has written “when constructing a work, I pare it down to the essence—the minimal. Each chosen object represents years of seeing with acute awareness.” Marks’s writings accompany a selection of approximately 200 of her most evocative works.

Roberta B. Marks, who has an MFA from the University of South Florida, is widely collected. Her works are featured in numerous museums and galleries throughout the country and Europe, and she has taught widely, including regular classes at the Studios of Key West.

Steven Holl Architects
THE JOHN F. KENNEDY CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS REACH EXPANSION

STEVEN HOLL

A book dedicated to the newly constructed expansion of the Kennedy Center that provides a new topology for performing-arts centers and a view of how art is made, designed by one of America’s most influential architects.

As the first major expansion in Kennedy Center history, the REACH breaks down boundaries between audience and art. Set adjacent to the Kennedy Center along the Potomac River in Washington, D.C., the REACH is set to open in 2019. As a “living memorial” for John F. Kennedy, the Center for the Performing Arts takes an active position among the great presidential monuments of the Jefferson and Lincoln Memorials. Steven Holl Architects envisions the expansion of the building to fuse with the landscape and river, connecting the Kennedy Center to the Potomac riverfront for the first time: walk through a grove of thirty-five ginkgo trees, watch a free outdoor simulcast performance projected on a wall in a public park, or look out at the Potomac from a river pavilion café. The book offers a comprehensive look at the history of the project and includes programming initiatives by the Kennedy Center to memorialize President Kennedy and his significant contribution to the arts and American culture.

Steven Holl is the founder and principal of Steven Holl Architects in New York. Holl has won many awards, and his work has been presented at the Museum of Modern Art in New York.
Ezequiel Farca + Cristina Grappin

PHILIP JODIDIO
INTERVIEW WITH MICHAEL WEBB, FOREWORD BY PAOLA LENTI

A lavish volume on the stunning interiors and houses of this award-winning design and architecture firm, best known for its exceptional craftsmanship and refined sophistication drawn from the founders’ Mexican heritage.

Ezequiel Farca and Cristina Grappin challenge stereotypes and think globally, designing luxury vacation homes in Los Cabos, Puerto Vallarta, Acapulco, and Cancun, Mexico, and more recently Southern California and Europe. Their studio focuses on creating holistic spaces, which are a perfect blend of timeless design and comfortable functionality, using natural materials and elegant details. Understated luxury is a common theme of their residential interiors, with custom-designed furnishings and artisanal pieces sourced from around the world and an emphasis on serenity, simple forms, and a soft, warm palette. Featured are more than sixteen residential and commercial projects, presented up close and with plans, including a mezcal bar located in a landmark building in Oaxaca; a Venice Beach town house designed for the owners’ private art collection; and interiors and design of a Benetti Crystal luxury yacht. An interview with Michael Webb reveals the architects’ thought processes and influences.

Philip Jodidio has written over one hundred books on contemporary architecture and art, including Tadao Ando: Houses, Steven Holl: Seven Houses, and I. M. Pei: Complete Works for Rizzoli. Michael Webb, Hon. AIA/LA, is an artist and professor of architecture who writes on architecture, design, and travel. Paola Lenti is founder of her own company, Paola Lenti, located in Meda, near Milan.

West Kowloon Station

ANDREW BROMBERG AT AEDAS

PHILIP JODIDIO
FOREWORD BY MICHAEL WEBB

An in-depth look at the dramatic architecture and design for one of the largest underground train stations in the world, serving a high-speed rail network that connects Hong Kong to major cities in China, with its pioneering, eco-friendly, and socially sound design.

This is the first book to document the highly innovative Terminal in Hong Kong, completed in 2018, with a rare glimpse at all stages of plans, design, and construction. Located centrally in Hong Kong, this is one of the largest below-ground stations in the world. The high-speed rail terminus station connects Hong Kong to Beijing and is expected to strengthen the city’s strategic position as the southern gateway of China. When Andrew Bromberg’s team entered the competition to design the station, they encountered a problem: the station is mostly 100 feet belowground. His solution was to ensure the station was civic-minded and to create a large volume capped by a shell-like dome that rises from the earth, capturing daylight and sending it deep underground. Even as they stand on the subterranean concourse, passengers can catch a glimpse of Victoria Peak and the city’s tallest buildings. This book contains never-before-seen sketches, models, renderings, drawings, and all-new photography of the complex.

Philip Jodidio has written over one hundred books on contemporary architecture and art, including Tadao Ando: Houses, Steven Holl: Seven Houses, and I. M. Pei: Complete Works for Rizzoli. Michael Webb, Hon. AIA/LA, is an artist and professor of architecture who writes on architecture, design, and travel.

PHILIP JODIDIO

A celebration of the opening of the new Museum of Fine Arts, Lausanne, Switzerland, exploring the creation of one of Europe’s foremost art centers.

With 150 photographs and drawings that illuminate an enormous undertaking, this volume provides a detailed insight into the different phases of design and construction, and the creation of an art complex that will later include museums of photography and design created by the Portuguese architects Aires Mateus.

PORTRAITS OF INTERIORS

FOREWORD BY AXEL VERVOORDT
TEXT BY MICHAEL JAMES GARDNER
PHOTOGRAPHS BY LAZIZ HAMANI

Eighteen recently designed homes demonstrate how Axel Vervoordt incorporates nature, art, and timeless interiors to create living spaces that encourage self-reflection, inspiration, and happiness.

For a half century, Axel Vervoordt’s vision has been defined by a continual quest for harmony, beauty, and the creation of interior atmospheres that are rooted in the past, connected to the future, and imbued with today’s comforts. Here, the designer reveals his guiding philosophy and pursuit to uncover the profound sense of well-being that a home can evoke.

These eighteen residences—from an urban New York penthouse or Moscow apartment to a waterfront estate in New England, and from a Tokyo dwelling to a Bordeaux wine château or a Wabi-Sabi farmhouse—reveal how art complements architecture and the elements of nature in an alchemy of Vervoordt expression. Portraits of each residence—including the Vervoordts’ own homes in Venice and Belgium—feature sweeping vistas of the surrounding landscape and a tour through the interiors. Each detail—from the materials used to the graceful placement of a well-chosen object—offers deep insight into the Vervoordt design approach and abiding principles for living and working well.

A home should be an oasis, a haven that fosters a sense of well-being and joy. Axel Vervoordt demonstrates how—through the creation of timeless interiors—a home can convey a spirit of generosity, love, and emotion to all who cross the threshold.

Tastemakers at Home in France

TEXT BY CATHERINE SYNAVE
PHOTOGRAPHS BY GUILLAUME DE LAUBIER

Twenty-five world-class designers invite us inside their private French residences, providing intimate access to their creative universe and rich inspiration for home style.

Stepping inside the private residences of France’s leading tastemakers provides unrivaled inspiration for interiors with a personal flair. From a modernist retreat to an urban-pop apartment, and from an eclectic cabinet of curiosities to an eighteenth-century hôtel particulier, each ambiance demonstrates a perfect mastery of associations between color, pattern, volume, material, and decorative genius.

Pierre Yovanovitch’s elegant, purist sensitivity infuses his seventeenth-century château in Provence. Pierre Passebon, owner of the famous Galerie du Passage in Paris, has furnished his carefully curated home with a brilliant mix of tribal art, Wiener Werkstätte masterpieces, and design from the 1930s. Jewelry designer Lorenz Bäumer’s own interior creations complement the resolutely contemporary pieces by modern masters such as Ingo Maurer, Ettore Sottsass, and Verner Panton in his light-filled, constantly evolving apartment. Fashion designer Gilles Dufour’s eclectic collections include nineteenth-century history paintings, classical sculptures, and Christian Bérard drawings, displayed alongside a menagerie of sculptures by Claude and François-Xavier Lalanne.

Paris: Fashion Flair
MARC-ANTOINE COULON
FOREWORD BY INES DE LA FRESSANGE

The glamour and excitement of the Parisian fashion scene explodes onto the page in these bold portraits and drawings of Paris by rising star and couture insider Marc-Antoine Coulon.

With an unwavering hand and a riot of color, Marc-Antoine Coulon captures Paris fashion on and off the runway. His pared-down, ultra-glamorous sketches—portraits of designers, screen stars, and his favorite Parisian haunts from day to night—are rendered here with incisive and unique artistry. Coulon’s watercolors, collages, and sketches, paired with handwritten observations and pithy quotations, transcend the page. The artist’s distinctive style—inspired by the great masters René Gruau and Erté—is both timeless and iconic, with a distinctly contemporary edge that is at once elegant, sexy, vibrant, and witty.

Fashion icon Ines de la Fressange acknowledges his artistic courage: with a bold, saturated background, a confident brushstroke, or the force of negative space, his drawings sublimate his subjects—whether a dress, a monument, or a celebrity.

As fashion illustration enjoys a renaissance in magazines and couture campaigns, Coulon’s drawings have been commissioned by everyone from Vogue to Dior to private collectors. They offer readers a joyful and breathless tour of everything fashionable in Paris.

Marc-Antoine Coulon creates illustrations for luxury clients such as Dior, Cartier, Jean Paul Gaultier, and Givenchy. His work regularly appears in magazines such as Vogue, Town & Country, Vanity Fair, Madame Figaro, and Elle. He illustrated the Vogue Paris coloring book in 2018. An exhibition of his work, Unapologetic Lines, was held from September 2018 to February 2019 at the SCAD FASH Museum of Fashion + Film in Atlanta. Ines de la Fressange, model and designer, is coauthor of the New York Times best seller Parisian Chic (Flammarion, 2011).
Trianon and the Queen’s Hamlet at Versailles

A PRIVATE ROYAL RETREAT

TEXT BY JACQUES MOULIN
WITH YVES CARLIER
PHOTOGRAPHY BY FRANCIS HAMMOND

Exceptional new photography brings readers behind the scenes of the Trianons and Marie Antoinette’s Hamlet at Versailles—including areas usually closed to the public.

Life in the Château de Versailles was dense with pomp and circumstance, and the royals often craved a quiet moment with friends and lovers far from the din of the court. Hidden away from the palace on the grounds nearby, the kings built the Grand Trianon, Petit Trianon, and the Queen’s Hamlet, where they could slip away to entertain their inner circle. This book explores every aspect of life at these private outbuildings, from the furnishings and gardens to the history and inhabitants.

In 1687, the sun king Louis XIV conceived of the Grand Trianon and its exceptional parterres and fountains as a seamless link between court and garden—a private retreat where he could withdraw with his family and escape the heavy hand of protocol. Louis XV commissioned the Petit Trianon, a neoclassical masterpiece with four unique facades, its famous menagerie, and botanical gardens. Louis XVI bestowed the Petit Trianon on Marie Antoinette; in her gardens and picturesque hamlet and farm, the queen’s presence is more tangible here than anywhere else at Versailles.

This handsome volume, with newly commissioned photography, is both a historical testimony and an intimate visit on the grounds of the palace of Versailles.

Jacques Moulin is the chief architect for numerous French heritage sites, including Versailles. Francis Hammond has contributed to many books, including Versailles: A Private Invitation, Historic Houses of Paris, and A Day at Versailles. Yves Carlier, general curator at Versailles and specialist in sixteenth- to nineteenth-century French decorative arts and design, wrote A Day at Versailles.

150 Years at Château Lafite

SASKIA DE ROTHCHILD
BARON ÉRIC DE ROTHCHILD

Winemakers Éric and Saskia de Rothschild lead readers through 150 vintages of Château Lafite, revealing key moments since the family arrived in 1868, along with scientific and climatic data and visual memories from the château’s archives.

Over the past 150 years, six generations of the Rothschild family have attended to the winemaking tradition, developing Château Lafite’s reputation and transforming this classified Premier Grand Cru into a benchmark for fine wine in Bordeaux. Discover how this occurred and what actually lies behind Lafite’s label through stories from the tightly-knit team of men and women who tend to Lafite wines—from vineyard workers to barrel makers, and harvesters to winemakers.

A chronology introducing each of the 150 vintages includes informative tasting notes, meteorological aspects, and the grape blends that mark each vintage. An archival gem has been unearthed for each year: from the harvesters’ menu in 1922 to portraits by master photographers like Robert Doisneau, Richard Avedon, and Paolo Roversi. Space to record personal tasting notes allows readers to make this book their own, building their wine knowledge over time.

The Lafite story—illustrated here with historical documents, press clippings, and photographs—combines deep respect for tradition with a commitment to evolve with the times, protecting Lafite’s singular, vibrant, and evolving legacy for the next 150 years.

Saskia de Rothschild is Château Lafite’s sixth-generation winemaker, a writer, and a former journalist for The International New York Times. Baron Éric de Rothschild managed the estate from 1974–2018, overseeing important technical advancements and vineyard renewal.

Tadao Ando
THE CHALLENGE
TADAO ANDO
EDITORIAL DIRECTION BY FRÉDÉRIC MIGAYROU

This comprehensive monograph on Pritzker Prize-winning architect Tadao Ando covers the span of his impressive career, with previously unpublished material and insight into his sources of inspiration.

This in-depth monograph offers insight into Tadao Ando’s sober and elegant architecture through photographs, architectural drawings, and descriptions of eighty of his most significant works. Self-taught, the Le Corbusier–influenced architect opened his Osaka studio in 1969. Today, his notable works span the globe: London’s Tate Modern; St. Louis’s Pulitzer Arts Foundation; Osaka’s Church of the Light; Paris’s UNESCO Meditation Space; Venice’s Palazzo Grassi; Abu Dhabi’s Maritime Museum; and exceptional buildings in South Korea, Taiwan, China, Sri Lanka, Mexico, Germany, and throughout the United States.

Japanese design principles—from the use of concrete, simple geometric volumes, and the integration of natural elements such as light or water—are essential elements that Ando uses to provoke a physical experience through his architecture.

An interview with the architect accompanies his own writings and critical essays on various aspects of his work. A portfolio of Ando’s black-and-white photographs and colored-pencil drawings from his previously unpublished travel notebooks provide new insight into his sources of inspiration. The book is completed with a biography and a chronology of his works to date, including some unrealized projects.

Originally published to accompany a retrospective exhibition at the Centre Pompidou in partnership with the Bourse de Commerce/Collection Pinault Paris, this book was awarded the Prix CatalPa in 2018.

Her visionary marketing and publicity campaigns secured her brand’s success, and she left behind one hundred branches in forty countries and 30,000 employees. Until the end of her life, the world’s richest woman remained faithful to her humble Polish-Jewish roots and proud of her Yiddish accent.

This illustrated biography recounts Rubinstein’s life and legacy—the path to building her empire, her extensive art collection, her fascination with fashion and jewelry, and her groundbreaking achievements in launching the modern beauty revolution.

The Trouble with Women Artists
REFRAMING THE HISTORY OF ART
LAURE ADLER AND CAMILLE VIÉVILLE

Sixty-seven female artists and their work from the sixteenth century to the present demonstrate the evolution of art through a female-empowered lens.

The history of art has been forever considered, written, published, and taught by men, primarily for a male audience. For women, the mere possibility of becoming an artist—to have access to the necessary materials, to produce, exhibit, and, against all odds, succeed and sustain the activity—has been an incessant, dangerous, and exhausting fight—physically, mentally, and psychologically. The time has come to reframe the history of art in the context of the brave women who had the courage to defy all rules in order to pursue their vocation and carve out their place in the art world.

This book draws the portraits of sixty-seven fascinating women and their significant artistic achievements, from groundbreaking Renaissance painter Artemisia Gentileschi to the photography of Nan Goldin today. Tracing the painters, sculptors, photographers, and performance artists who shaped modern art, readers discover key figures and their signature works, including Mary Cassatt, Sonia Delaunay, Georgia O’Keeffe, Tamara de Lempicka, Frida Kahlo, Dorothea Tanning, Leonora Carrington, Yoko Ono, Eva Hesse, Marina Abramović, Carrie Mae Weems, and Cindy Sherman.

Exploring the codes and archetypes of art history, this celebration of women in art analyzes their slow but steady achievement of artistic independence and the hard-won recognition for their creative work in a domain historically reserved for men.

Laure Adler is a journalist, author, and historian specializing in women’s studies and feminism. She contributed to Dangerous Women: The Perils of Muses and Femmes Fatales (Flammarion, 2010). Camille Viéville is an art historian, freelance researcher, and author.
Jacques Henri Lartigue

Jacques Henri Lartigue's elegant black-and-white and color photography spans a century; this affordable volume celebrates the best of his joyful and stylish work.

Jacques Henri Lartigue’s carefree, joyful, and spontaneous spirit permeates his photography. And yet there are other, lesser-known aspects of his work that invite us to take a closer look. Whether capturing amusing scenes on film or sketching them on paper or canvas, the artist covered a vast range of themes. Lartigue took photographs throughout his career, almost as a matter of routine, which makes his work a vital record of his times. His style gradually evolved, influenced by artistic experiments and personal encounters.

He left behind a rich and varied body of work. Albums of his private photographs provide a romanticized view of the photographer’s personal life, revealing his doubts and attempts to understand his place in the world; they constitute an essential part of his body of work. Lartigue played with visual tricks, styles, and recurring themes—transportation, sports, shadow play, chic women—bridging different periods and lending consistency to his work.

The selection of photographs reproduced here represents the best examples of his most popular themes.

Jacques Henri Lartigue (1894–1986) was a master French photographer. The Fondation Jacques Henri Lartigue, established by his widow, Florette, houses, conserves, and promotes the master photographer’s extensive archives that include more than 120,000 photos, 7,000 diary pages, and 1,500 paintings.

Capturing Style
SNAPSHOTS FROM THE '60S AND '70S

Glam model and journalist Mary Russell’s photographs capture the effervescence of the 1960s and 1970s from her vantage point inside the international fashion and music scenes.

Mary Russell’s career in fashion journalism was launched in the 1950s by Diana Vreeland when the legendary editor recommended her for a job at Glamour, which eventually led Russell to open the magazine’s Parisian outpost. At turns a model, journalist, and stylist for photographers like Helmut Newton, Lord Snowdon, David Bailey, and Steven Meisel, Russell rubbed shoulders and more with celebrities from film, music, fashion, and dance, who became her close friends. Her personal photographs, taken during private moments at work and at play, offer rare and privileged insight into the European cultural elite of the 1960s and 1970s.

Pierre Passebon is a specialist of twentieth-century decorative arts. He owns the world-class Galerie du Passage in Paris. Mary Russell, an American fashion reporter and photographer, contributed to Vogue, Elle, Women’s Wear Daily, Glamour, the Herald Tribune, and the New York Times. Russell captured an A-list of cultural icons in her black-and-white candid snapshots, including Bianca Jagger, Jerry Hall, Grace Jones, Jane Fonda, Candice Bergen, Karl Lagerfeld, Yves Saint Laurent and Pierre Bergé, François and Betty Catroux, Egon and Diane von Furstenberg, Andy Warhol, Edie Sedgwick, Helmut Newton, Peter Beard, Charlotte Rampling, Jane Birkin and Serge Gainsbourg, the Velvet Underground, the Rolling Stones, Roman Polanski, Rudolf Nureyev, and more.

This Book Is Literally Just Pictures of Cute Animals That Will Make You Feel Better
EDITED BY SMITH STREET BOOKS

This zoological and photographic odyssey documents the cutest, cuddliest, and silliest animals of all time, to brighten up the days of humans across the world.

As its name subtly suggests, this book features eighty pictures of excessively cute animals. That’s literally it. Among other gems, you can expect some cats flaunting some fabulous wigs, sloths dangling casually, otters holding hands (an actual thing that occurs in nature) and piglets wearing little rain boots for some adorable reason. Beyond a shadow of a doubt, this book is a landmark moment in the history of photojournalism.

While turning these puppy-peppered pages, your mood will literally become one of delight and tenderness. And therein lies the powerful magic of pictures of cute animals. Just simply peering into those big eyes carries with it all the gravitas of a David Attenborough nature documentary, but without having to actually watch a documentary.

The resilience of the animal kingdom is endlessly inspiring. Cast your mind to this iconic image: a kitten dangling from a tree branch, while sagely encouraging us humans to just “hang in there.” And hang in there we did—in order to own this book. This is literally exactly what our turbulent world needs right now. With its unique meow factor, this is the book that you deserve after a ruff day at work. (It should be said that, mercifully, no animal puns are included in this book.)

Smith Street Books’ editorial staff themselves undertook the arduous work of curating cute animal images for this book.

The Shared Table

VEGETARIAN FEASTS FOR FAMILY AND FRIENDS

CLARE SCRINE

Any meal is only as good as the company with whom it’s shared, which is why this book unites food and its local community.

This cookbook is a celebration of shared homes and their most iconic dishes—the food designed to feed the crowd, without breaking the bank or spending hours in the kitchen. It is a book about community, warmth, love, and the unique connection of a nurturing home, where shared meals are central to the environment. Plus, without getting preachy or “clean ‘n green eating” about it, all the recipes in the book are vegetarian and vegan.

The eight chapters are captured in different share houses throughout the sunshiny inner suburbs of Brisbane, Australia. Each chapter has a distinct theme, as dictated by the culinary skills of those living in the featured house: a breakfast-spread menu; hungover brunch; a leisurely long lunch; eat it with your hands; a Mexican-inspired feast; a Mediterranean dinner party; pasta night; and comfort-food spread.

Through its clean and bright photography—all taken by Clare’s own friends and roommates—The Shared Table is simultaneously luxe and sincere. It’s a warm and inviting cookbook that every share house needs on their communal bookshelf.

Clare Scrine is a food writer based in subtropical Brisbane, Australia. She has been curating recipes and dinner parties for her loved ones for the last ten years. Under the Mediterranean Sun
A FOOD JOURNEY FROM SPAIN TO NORTHERN AFRICA AND LEBANON

NADIA ZEROUALI AND MERIJN TOL

This book is a meeting point for southern European, Middle Eastern, and northern African cuisine. The result is flavor and color—both beyond compare.

Authors Nadia and Merijn have always traveled extensively to research their beautiful cookbooks. This is no exception. Since publishing Arabia in 2011, they have continued to push the culinary envelope and source the most authentic, simple, and delectable recipes. In journeys throughout southern Europe, the Middle East, and northern Africa, this dynamic duo document the food, people, and stories encountered along the way. For Nadia and Merijn, the Arab world has no strict geography, as certain dishes in Spain and southern Italy are as influenced by the “Arab world” as those in Morocco, Tunisia, and the Middle East.

Under the Mediterranean Sun is a personal food odyssey to find the people, places, and dishes that unite the Mediterranean and the Arabic world. This book’s 125 recipes are separated by region: Morocco, Tunisia, Libya, Algeria, Lebanon, Syria, Palestine, Israel, Turkey, Sicily, Andalusia, Sardinia, and Catalonia. What unites each of these distinct regions are the incomparable colors, textures, and sun-dappled spirit of the Mediterranean.

Authors Nadia Zerouali and Merijn Tol have been writing about Arabic and Mediterranean cuisine for many years. They have traveled around southern Europe, the Maghreb, and the Middle East to experience the influence of Arabic cuisine for themselves, to taste the food, and to learn how to prepare it authentically by joining local women in their own kitchens. They have previously authored Arabia, A Drop of Rose Water, and Souk. They can also be seen on Dutch television (NTR), where they will present their own culinary travel program.

Beer Snacks

TASTY BITES FROM AROUND THE WORLD

OSCAR SMITH

Never fear, just beer! This handy, small-format cookbook is filled with snacking solutions to keep you drinking beer deep into the night (and morning).

This is the perfect volume for anybody who enjoys drinking beer and snacking—so basically, every (adult) human being on Earth. As we all know, beer is enjoyed the world over. And wherever beer is imbibed, there’s usually some kind of delicious and salty snack to go with it. We know for a fact that beer has existed at least as early as the fifth millennium BC, so author Oscar Smith’s only remaining question is, Why didn’t anyone make this book sooner?

Beer Snacks starts its journey at smaller snack-y fare like moreish Malaysian ikan bilis, Japanese otsumami, USA-style boiled peanuts, and Mexican chicharrón. These are the sort of tiny bites that are designed to be grabbed by the fistful and basically inhaled, or scooped into the mouth, rather than eaten in any classy sort of way. Beer Snacks then advances to more substantial drinking-friendly food like spicy buffalo wings and currywurst (German), chorizo cooked in cider (Spain), and the ultimate in beer-soaking technology: Canadian poutine. Oscar Smith himself says, “I don’t speak Québécois myself, but I can only assume that poutine translates directly to English as ‘heaven on our undeserving Earth.’” Indeed. Well, finally, Beer Snacks brings you the world’s best of what to eat while you drink.

Oscar Smith is a beer enthusiast, keen traveler, and food writer based in Melbourne, Australia. His previous books include Feed the Man Meat, published by Smith Street Books in 2016.
Spritz Fever!

SIXTY CHAMPAGNE AND SPARKLING WINE COCKTAILS

ELOUISE ANDERS
ILLUSTRATED BY SARAH HANKINSON

Become a certified fizz whiz with this illustrated guide to creating sixty ultra-refreshing spritz cocktails.

The 60 spritz recipes in Spritz Fever! are in the cocktail style of the decade. Seeing as most spritzes are low(ish) in ABV (well, certainly lower than wine, anyway), they’re the ideal companion for any day-drinking event. Plus, as most Instagram feeds can attest, spritzes aren’t just a drink…they’re a lifestyle. These bubbly wonders speak to a careless Italian summer spent reclining by the beach in fine and flowing linen.

What can be so easy to forget is that spritzes are so much more than just Aperol and bubbles. In this book, you’ll learn about the classic European liqueurs, like Cynar, Campari, Luxardo Bitter, Meletti, and more. Moreover, you’ll discover the nuances between prosecco, cava, and champagne can create different textures as the bubbles in each effervesce uniquely. Plus, read up on how citrus garnishes must be matched appropriately to each drink’s flavor profile and, of course, color. Above all, the perfect ratio of liqueur-to-bubbles changes for each recipe. Spritz Fever! explains all of this, alongside its dreamy illustrations.

It’s time you get to the very essence of effervescence. Your next party guests will love all the cocktail recipes you glean from Spritz Fever!, and just in time for summer!

Tarot—but make it fashion. Use this sickening deck to gaze into your future, hunties.

Featuring seventy-eight queens from the first ten seasons of the shadiest show on television, this intricately designed tarot deck is definitely in your future.

Do you have existential questions about your personal universe, such as: Do I need to go back to party city, where I belong? How best might I, in both my work and love life, get sickening? If I can’t love myself, how in the hell am I gonna love anyone else?

Based on the Rider-Waite tarot deck, these cards can be used either by a true divination professional or an intoxicated patron at a RuPaul’s Drag Race live screening. And hey, if your future, as ordained by these cards, ain’t looking so bright, at least you’ll get a kick from the cosmic shade, the cosmic shade of it all!

It’s safe to say you’ll be clutching pearls either way.

Paul Borchers has been illustrating since 2003. His distinct comic-book style has been commissioned by the likes of Men’s Health and VICE. He currently resides in San Francisco, California, and is the author of The Ultimate Fan Guide to RuPaul’s Drag Race.

Friends Playing Cards

ILLUSTRATED BY CHANTEL DE SOUSA

You can just hear Chandler ask, “Could this deck be any kitschier?” These playing cards pay homage to the iconic and beloved ’90s sitcom, Friends.

This is a deck of fifty-four standard-sized cards, with four classic suits and printed on poker-quality material. The twist? The fun design is a celebration of the six iconic characters of Friends, everyone’s favorite sitcom!

In these Friends Playing Cards, the sextuplet is (more or less) coupled off and assigned to the four suits. Ross and Rachel are (on-and-off-again) hearts. Monica and Chandler are diamonds, because Monica asked to be diamonds and who’s going to argue with her? Then the ever-quirky Phoebe takes spades, leaving the lovable Joey as clubs. Who else could be the Joker but—“Oh, my, GOD!”—the inimitable Janice?

As 2019 marks twenty-five years since the first episode of Friends aired, there’s never been a better time to deal these cards and whittle away some time with the very best of your friends.

Chantel de Sousa is an artist and illustrator based in Melbourne, Australia. In addition to creating the fun designs for these cards, she has previously illustrated the Will & Grace Playing Cards and Seinfeld Playing Cards previously published by Smith Street Books.

How to Be a Big Strong Man
A MODERN GUIDE TO MASCULINITY
SAMUEL LEIGHTON-DORE

This bright book of sassy cartoons redefines what it takes to be a man. Long story short, there are no rules, nor should there be.

This book is definitive proof that masculinity as we know it is a myth. A big, dumb, silly, and quite poorly constructed myth! This book pokes lighthearted fun at the very notion of manhood by offering a contemporary guide to masculinity. Thus: How to Be A Big Strong Man.

Through its 150 tongue-firmly-in-cheek illustrations by queer artist Samuel Leighton-Dore, this book explores the many identities of a modern man. A manly man gets a pedicure, and a manly man calls his grandmother for a nice long chat. Above all, a manly man can cry whenever he pleases and knows that “manliness” is an outdated construct…. Duh!

Just a few short years ago, anyone using the term toxic masculinity would likely have received blank stares or derision in return. But now, at this critical societal juncture, everyone is thinking and talking about how ideas of manhood (as prescribed from birth) affect the way men think and act. How to Be a Big Strong Man explores all these weighty ideas through its cute, sassy, and satirical cartoons.

Samuel Leighton-Dore is an Australian writer of queer culture, a satirical cartoonist, a painter of explicit murals, and a crafter of ceramic phalluses. His writing has appeared in publications such as Gay Times, DNA and Huffington Post, and he has had solo gallery shows around Australia (most recently at the 2019 Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras).

Where’s Bowie?

SEARCH FOR DAVID BOWIE IN BERLIN, STUDIO 54, OUTER SPACE AND MORE...

NICOLAS NEWTON

Scour these intricately illustrated pages for our most beloved icon of pop culture, the late and great David Bowie.

This book is a reverent and interactive homage to David Bowie, with dense illustrations of the many real and imagined universes of his own making. Hidden somewhere on each of these double-page spreads, a Bowie is patiently waiting to be spotted by the well-trained eye of a fan.

As the chameleonic Bowie took on so many iconic personas across his illustrious career, each moment is celebrated chronologically in this book. You will have to find young and dapper David Jones in 1960s Brixton; look for Ziggy Stardust in spaced-out Outer Space, crawling with Martian spiders and nestled between the stars; then search for glam Bowie among the revelers at Studio 54; and ask yourself, is that the Thin White Duke outside Hansa by the Wall in late-'70s Berlin? Each page of this book is so laden with Bowie references that you might even pick up a factoid or two in your search.

With fun, detailed illustrations that explore Bowie’s world—and that of his influences—Where’s Bowie? is the perfect guide to the cultural icon for both adults and children. Plus, who doesn’t want to raise their kid as a Bowie super-geek? No one—that’s who.

Nicolas Newton is a Brooklyn-based illustrator and author of graphic novels. His favorite Bowie era is, without a shadow of a doubt, Aladdin Sane (both the album and the persona).

My Canadian Boyfriend, Justin Trudeau

CARRIE PARKER

A celebration of the man, the myth, and the meme that is everyone’s political crush.

There is no world leader as beloved (or loooved) as Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau. Dynamic, smart, charismatic, compassionate, and sometimes sassy, he has quickly emerged as not only a dominant politician, but also a model-like role model to millions around the globe.

This laugh-out-loud tribute to the head (and heart) of the Canadian government is filled with photos of Trudeau. From delivering speeches in finely tailored suits to boxing shirtless, from looking dashing while running the government to looking sexy while running in short shorts, and charming everyone from constituents to royalty with his sparkling eyes, wit, and smile. This book collects all the photos that prove he puts the prime in prime minister.

Accompanied by the author’s sweetly off-kilter thoughts about Trudeau’s many remarkable physical and intellectual assets, philosophies, and actions, as well as her quirky observances about Canadian culture, this is the book for anyone who has ever thought, O, Canada!

Carrie Parker is not real, but her love for Justin Trudeau is.

Becoming Barbra
BILL EPPRIDGE

Becoming Barbra presents a never-before-seen look at a star in the making by an award-winning photographer with full access.

From the humble beginnings of Barbra Streisand’s career in 1963 to full-fledged stardom in 1966, renowned Life magazine photographer Bill Eppridge had full access to the young singer. He photographed Streisand shopping in a thrift shop; trying on outfits in her apartment; and at an appearance on The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson. Eppridge documented Streisand meeting with producer David Merrick, who wanted her for the starring role in Broadway’s Funny Girl, which catapulted her to celebrity status.

By the time Eppridge caught up with Streisand in 1966, she was a star in full orbit. CBS had signed her to star in three television specials, five of her albums had gone gold and one platinum, and she had received three Grammys and an Emmy. Eppridge photographed Streisand throughout her CBS rehearsals and recording sessions, then went to Paris where he covered her at fashion shows, and captured a Richard Avedon shoot of her for French Vogue.

Eppridge’s photographs are vivid, candid, and a truly intriguing and unprecedented look at the beginnings of Streisand’s career—an intimate photo album by a master photographer of one of the most talented performers of our time.

Bill Eppridge was one of the most accomplished photojournalists of the twentieth century. His work has appeared in numerous publications, including Life and National Geographic. His photographs have been exhibited at museums around the world.

Bruce Springsteen
FROM ASBURY PARK, TO BORN TO RUN, TO BORN IN THE USA
DAVID GAHR
TEXT CONTRIBUTION BY CHRIS MURRAY

An unprecedented look at a very young Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band, from the group’s creation and early New Jersey days to their meteoric rise and seminal Born in the U.S.A. tour, in photographs almost all not previously published.

David Gahr (1922–2008) was tapped by Columbia Records designer John Berg to shoot cover art for Bruce Springsteen’s second album, The Wild, the Innocent & the E Street Shuffle. Gahr’s earliest photographs of the musician showcase a youthful Springsteen, not even aged twenty-three, in Asbury Park, New Jersey, on the eve of a career breakthrough. Gahr befriended the rising star, and over a span of approximately ten years he photographed Springsteen, both on- and offstage. Rare captures include Springsteen recording music, performing at the cramped venue Bottom Line weeks before the release of his seminal 1975 album Born to Run, and playing to legions of fans during his Born in the U.S.A. tour. Bruce Springsteen is an unprecedented look back at Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band on their path to becoming rock legends.

David Gahr was one of music’s renowned but under-the-radar photographers. Gahr captured iconic images of some of the greatest musicians of the twentieth century, including Bob Dylan, Pete Seeger, Janis Joplin, Johnny Cash, and Miles Davis, to name only a few. Chris Murray is a writer and founder of Govinda Gallery.

Sophie the Parisian

STYLE TIPS FROM A TRUE PARISIAN WOMAN

NATHALIE PEIGNÉ

This book is an appealing, pocket-size guide to French style and glamour, with 100 practical and concrete tips and delightful photos and sketches.

Seven years after the success of the style guide Parisian Chic by Inès de la Fressange, Sophie the Parisian offers a fresher, wider, and more varied guide to French style. The Parisian woman is considered a female role model by definition: classical in taste, but independent and dynamic; elegant and sophisticated at times, feminine and seductive, but not vulgar; attentive to what she wears and taking care of her body, but without excessive vanity; and who has sophisticated and original but simple taste. Food lover and partygoer, she focuses on the quality of food rather than on her shape. Fond of natural beauty, and without plastic surgery, she doesn’t try to hide the signs of aging, which she wears with pride. Sophie the Parisian doesn’t take herself too seriously and uses a well-balanced mix of charm, great taste, and irony—three typical traits of the modern Frenchwoman—to cover topics ranging from fashion to the well-being of the body, from looks to health, from cooking to decoration: everything that makes the French joie de vivre a role-model lifestyle worldwide.

Nathalie Peigné holds a master’s degree in business administration and management, as well as one in marketing from the Institut Français de la Mode. Today, she is a marketing consultant and journalist specializing in luxury products, male fashion, and French gastronomy. She also has a blog, Sophie the Parisian, where eight of her girlfriends and a male friend discuss the Ville Lumière and Parisian life.

Café Society

SOCIALITES, PATRONS, AND ARTISTS 1920–1960

THIERRY COUDERT

Through archival photographs and period documents, this volume recounts in historical detail the intrigue and impact generated around the world by the stylish Café society jet set.

Aristocrats, millionaires, painters, fashion designers, choreographers, and musicians of the café society fox-trot aboard cruise liners and mingle at dazzling parties in Paris. Exclusive, extravagant, and beautiful, these cosmopolitan socialites were the patrons who galvanized the phenomenal success of the greatest creators of the early twentieth century. It was a whirlwind of sumptuously decorated villas and yachts, up-and-coming haute couture and jewelry designers, and elite evening parties, immortalized by fashion photographers like Cecil Beaton. Combining elegance and fantasy, the members of the café society enjoyed a sophisticated, avant-garde lifestyle. Some of the century’s most original talents—from Cole Porter to Yves Saint Laurent—stepped into the limelight via the café society.

Thierry Coudert contributed to the catalog for the exhibition Cartier 1899–1949: The Journey of a Style, staged at the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation in 2007. A close friend of Alexis de Redé, he has a deep and abiding interest in the artistic and cosmopolitan world of the café society, and over the last ten years has assembled an important collection of archive documents on the subject.
Brigitte Bardot: My Life in Fashion
HENRY-JEAN SERVAT, CONTRIBUTION BY BRIGITTE BARDOT

Legendary actress Brigitte Bardot led fashion revolutions throughout her career; this retrospective includes Bardot’s comments on her iconic style in a rare, intimate interview.

Brigitte Bardot is a style icon whose legacy has undeniably shaped the face of fashion as we know it. She was discovered by a magazine editor at only fourteen years old, her career blossomed as the world emerged from the ashes of World War II. She found fame and admiration on the big screen in the 1950s and then became the fiery sex symbol of the groovy and liberated 1960s. Over the course of her career, all of the great French designers—including Christian Dior, Pierre Balmain, and Pierre Cardin— outfitted Bardot on- and offscreen. In photographs that capture her attending receptions by Queen Elizabeth II and Charles de Gaulle or on glamorous visits to the United States, in fashion shoots and on film sets, or relaxing on a grassy field, this volume illustrates all the key looks that she wore and brought to the international spotlight as she invented and edited her own highly imitated style. In an extensive—and extremely rare—interview, accompanied by her personal comments on the photographs, Bardot explains the context of the often vanguard fashions she wore, making headlines wherever she went. Evoking French style and the glamour of St. Tropez, her legacy endures—from ballerina slippers with sweeping skirts to figure-hugging knitwear, gingham fabrics and gypsy dresses, kohl eyeliner and tousled hair.

Henry-Jean Servat has written extensively about Brigitte Bardot. The only journalist to have sustained a close rapport with Bardot throughout her life, he has published several books on the famous actor-turned–animal rights activist.

Celebrated landscape architect Jean Mus’s lavish gardens—whether perched above the sea or nestling in the heart of a town—are always perfectly integrated into the surrounding environment and incorporate a rich spectrum of Mediterranean influences, including pottery, slate walkways, sleek water channels, and regional flora. Taking readers on an exclusive tour of the world’s most spectacular private Mediterranean gardens that have made Jean Mus’s name, this work guides us through the South of France into Greece and Portugal, divulging the stories behind his creations and sharing technical and reflective anecdotes from the designer himself. Accompanied by stunning photographs by the late Vincent Motte, this book offers inspiration to gardeners, landscape artists, and lovers of the Mediterranean region alike.

Jean Mus is an acclaimed landscape architect who has created numerous magnificent gardens in the South of France over the last thirty years.

Dane McDowell, former editor in chief of Résidences Décoration, has regularly contributed to Figaro magazine and Connaissance des Arts. She has also published several books. Vincent Motte was a photographer who lived in Provence for twenty years whose photographs have appeared in many books.
